ENGLAND ADHERES TO PLAN TO BAR FOOD FROM GERMANY

READY TO FORMALLY PROCLAIM FOOD BAN

Great Britain Persists in Course Which Moved Germans to Declare a Naval War Zone.

London, Feb. 16 (4:46 p. m.).—The prohibition against foodstuffs designed for Germany will be formally proclaimed by Great Britain either tonight or tomorrow, according to present expectations, and the government's retaliatory measures against the threatened German submarine "blockade" will go into immediate effect.

WITH KEENEST INTEREST
Washington Awaits English Attitude Toward German Proposal.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Administration officials today awaited with the keenest interest an indication of Great Britain's attitude toward Germany's proposal, made through the United States, to drop her plan to destroy enemy merchant ships by a submarine and sea mine campaign in British waters, if Great Britain would permit food cargoes to pass unmolested to the German civilian population. The full text of Great Britain's supplementary reply to the American note of December 26 concerning interferences with United States commerce was laid before President Wilson today. The long document of some 7,000 words was finally translated from diplomatic code after several days of work in the state department and taken to the white house by Secretary Bryan. Arrangements for its publication have not been completed, pending arrangements between Washington and London to give out the text simultaneously.

GERMAN ANSWER COMING.
Rotterdam, Feb. 16.—A dispatch to the Rotterdam Comrant from Berlin says the German government will today dispatch to Washington its reply to the American note on the subject of American shipping in the declared war zone in British waters.

WOULD GIVE WOMAN VOTE

Suffrage Measure Goes to Lower House of the Legislature.

TAGGART DEMANDS AN INVESTIGATION

Senate Looks Into Charge That He Sought to Control Its Action.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 16.—Woman's suffrage was placed before the house today while in the senate an investigation of allegations made by an Indianapolis newspaper that Thomas Taggart, democratic national committeeman for Indiana, attempted to control the senate's action, was ordered.

Mr. Taggart sent a letter to the senate requesting an investigation and a committee including Senators Van Nuys, Democratic Floor Leader Neal and Van Aiken, democrats and Gemmill and Lanz, republicans, was named by Lieut. Governor O'Neill to conduct the inquiry.

Representative Perry Rule, of Camden, introduced the woman suffrage bill. It provides for franchise rights being given to women, who would qualify to vote the same as men do now, and who could vote only for the statutory officers elected by the people in this state. Separate ballots and separate ballot boxes would be provided for the convenience of the women at each voting precinct by the terms of the bill. The measure was referred to house committee on judiciary A.

The Jones-Rinear direct primary election measures which were introduced in the senate several days ago will be reported in the house and senate tomorrow morning, according to announcements made by the presiding officer. Today upon requests of the authors. The two houses are expected to hasten consideration of the primary question.

Occasioned Some Surprise.
The reading of Mr. Taggart's letter by the lieutenant governor occasioned much surprise among the members of the senate. Mr. Taggart opened his letter with reference to a recent editorial in an Indianapolis newspaper in which he was charged with having been responsible for the defeat of Senator Ballou's bill reducing the number of game wardens. He said he had sent a communication to that paper in which he declared the charge to be absolutely false. He requested that a special committee be appointed to investigate the charge, which he designated a "slander," and a "reflection alike on the senate and me," he declared that he would gladly testify under oath before this committee of the falsity of the charges and requested that the editor of the paper be brought before the committee to test.

ACQUITTAL FOR SIX EX-CITY OFFICIALS

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 16.—Six former officials of East St. Louis were acquitted by a jury today on charges involving the misappropriation of $100,000 in city funds.

The men acquitted were Charles S. Lambert, former mayor; John J. Faulkner, former comptroller; W. R. Rodenberger, former congressman; Fred R. Gold, former treasurer; Claus Tietje, former alderman; Lester Grigby, former clerk health department, now chief of detectives.

The men were accused of having formed a conspiracy by which money was to be obtained from the city treasury by the payment, a second time, of bond coupons, and by bills for labor and supplies paid in the names of relatives or employees of the accused officials.

The acquittal of Lambert and Faulkner was asked by the prosecutor, who said there was no direct evidence against them.

GIRL HOBOES ARE CAPTURED

Trio of Tender Years Run Away from Home in Findlay, Ohio.

SEE PURSUER HERE AND FLEE ON FOOT

One Returns to City and Others Are Picked Up on Road Far North.

Tired, hungry, footsore, bedraggled with mud and out of money, three girl hoboos of tender years left Fort Wayne at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon over the C. H. & D. railroad in custody of Miss Anna Gadt, probation officer of the juvenile court in Findlay, Ohio, from their homes in which city the trio had run away last Sunday to seek their fortunes "out west."

The girls were Ester and Marie Horning, sisters, aged 15 and 13, respectively, and Margaret Brooker, aged 15. They were pursued to Fort Wayne by Officer Gadt who, with the aid of Fannie M. Winch, matron of the Fort Wayne police, and other police officers, and the forces of Sheriff A. C. Gladieux, finally gathered up the fugitives and took them back home.

See Officers and Flee.
The girls fled from Findlay Sunday, leaving by an interurban car to which they stuck until they reached the Nickel Plate railroad, coming here by that line. They took rooms at the home of Mrs. Palmer, 120 West Superior street. Miss Gadt arrived from Findlay Monday afternoon and sought Matron Winch. The two lady officers fared forth in quest of the runaways. The three young travelers were abroad in the city to behold what might interest the onlooker in Vienna and they saw the officers and recognized Miss Gadt. They did not stand long upon the order of going, but went at once. Scrambling from night of the lady sleuths, they hurried to their rooming house, got their belongings and fled forth afoot to the westward. They walked to Huntertown and there Marie, the youngest, overcame the hesitations of her companions, and they fled through the mud, began to leave for home and mother. They spent the night in the railway station at Huntertown and Tuesday morning the two other girls were her there. With safety reached the rooming house, but the officers were not there and the girls were not there.

ROBBERS BIND AND GAG NIGHT MARSHAL

Marion, Ind., Feb. 16.—Binding and gagging John Ouk, night marshal at Jonesboro, near here, early today, five men took his keys and attempted to enter the postoffice there.

The keys failing to work, the robbers gained entrance through a transom. They blew open the safe with nitroglycerin and escaped with $300 in stamps and about $100 in cash. Ouk succeeded in freeing himself about three hours after the robbers had escaped. No trace of the men had been found at noon.

AMERICAN ATTACHES GO IF OTHERS DO SO

Washington, Feb. 16.—American attaches to the United States embassy in Mexico City, lately attached to the Brazilian legation, will leave Mexico City if all other diplomatic representatives depart.

The state department has informed the Brazilian minister, who has been in charge of American diplomatic interests, that it presumes he will be guided by instructions from his own government with respect to leaving, but asks him to advise the American attaches that they may leave if others do. All the diplomatic representatives there have asked their home governments for authority to abandon the legations if the situation warrants.

Confirmatory dispatches telling of the capture of Guadalajara by Villa forces and a steady movement toward Mexico City were received here today.

Drake today by the Iowa Railway Commission. The commission is composed of the Iowa railroad commissioners and state officials and is to recommend the advance to the legislature.

SOME FLASHES FROM DR. LYON'S SERMONS
Some doctors look upon the human body as a big piece of meat.
You ought to know everything about something and something about everything.
Merely to know books is nothing in itself. You must know God.
We don't take time for the things worth while.
I believe God is calling men to make money for His cause.
You may accumulate all the money in Indiana, but if you must pay for it with your soul you have struck a bad bargain.
If you are really saved every dollar you have secured dishonestly you must pay back or you are going to hell.
If there is anything in your business that is not on the square, for God sake give it up.
Seek first the kingdom of God for if you do not seek it first the chances are you won't seek it at all.
Do you think God would have you seek for something you cannot get?

WILL DRAFT FLOOD PREVENTION BILL

For the purpose of drafting a bill to prevent future floods in the city of Fort Wayne a meeting of the legislative committee from the Fort Wayne flood prevention committee of the Commercial club will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The proposed bill pertains to Fort Wayne and immediate vicinity and will be presented at the present session of the legislature by one of Allen county's representatives.

Although there is now a bill pending before the legislature for flood prevention covering the entire state of Indiana, members of the local committee are of the opinion that it is not sufficient to meet local conditions.

PLOCK TAKEN BY GERMANS

Kaiser's Legions in East Capture an Important Polish Town.

STILL PRESSING RUSSIAN FOE HARD

General Offensive is Making Marked Progress on Both Flanks.

Today's War News Given in Summary.

German forces have captured the important Polish town of Plock, the Berlin war office announced today. Plock lies on the Vistula northwest of Warsaw, and the Russians have pushed their advance far beyond it in their movement against the West Prussian border, which apparently has now been ended. Not only Plock but the town of Bialsk is said to have been lost by the Russians.

In East Prussia, the Berlin communication states, the advance of the German forces continues, the Russians having been pursued across the border.

Berlin, Feb. 16.—(By Wireless to Sayville).—The German staff today gave out a report on the progress of the war reading as follows:

"The attacks of the enemy upon the trenches taken by German troops from the English, near St. Eloy, were yesterday repulsed; otherwise there have been no important developments in the west. "The fighting and the pursuits on and beyond the East Prussian frontier are proceeding very favorably. In Poland, north of the Vistula, German troops have occupied Bialsk and Plock, after a short engagement. About 1,000 prisoners were taken. South of the Vistula there have been no important developments.

"Foreign newspapers are publishing the most absurd rumors concerning immense German losses in the fighting to the east of Blinow, Russian Poland, which began in February. It can be said that the German losses in these attacks were small in proportion to the successes attained."

GERMANS WIN IN EAST.

London, Feb. 16.—(Noon).—The general offensive of the Teutonic allies along the extended eastern front is continuing successfully on both flanks, judging from reports reaching London, but without any visible forward movement on the front toward Warsaw or in the Carpathians. The Russian report that they had captured of Bialsk, which has been confirmed by German officials, is a significant development.

Between 800 and 900 employees of the S. F. Bowser plant attended the evangelistic service held on Mr. Bowser's time Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 2 o'clock. The men were privileged to ring out at 11:45 o'clock Tuesday morning and attend the special service on full pay.

A platform was erected in one of the big rooms and seats provided for the employees and all others who wished to attend. Dr. Milford H. Lyon spoke for nearly an hour, no restriction being placed on his time if he had not finished by 2 o'clock. Special music was furnished by Loren G. Jones with Mrs. Jones at the piano.

Mr. Bowser also spoke briefly to his men. He said the object of the meeting was to bring the church to those who have not been privileged to attend and to promote the Christian spirit throughout the plant. He praised the Catholic priest and the Lutheran minister who had recommended Dr. Lyon to their members, declaring he was here for a good purpose and doubtless much good would be accomplished.

Mrs. Barr Speaks.
Mrs. Daisy Barr spoke to a good-sized audience at the tabernacle Tuesday afternoon. A meeting of the Personal Workers' League was held at the noon hour at the First Presbyterian church at which time dinner was served. Shop meetings were held at 12:30 o'clock at the Van Arman factory, the Pennsylvania shops and the Bass foundry.

The business men of the city will attend the service Tuesday evening in a body, meeting at the court house at 7:15 o'clock. Other delegations are the members of the G. A. R., postoffice employees and Pythian Sisters.

Forty-two Take Stand.
Forty-two more took the stand for Christ at the tabernacle Monday evening, making a total up to date of 3,979. It was a splendid meeting, a good sized crowd for Monday night and a wonderful sermon, although Dr. Lyon said he did not intend to preach, but just talk. As a matter of fact, it was one of the most scholarly addresses he has delivered during the campaign.

Fort Wayne is thoroughly aroused religiously and as one minister expressed it, "the devil is certainly on the run." Although the meetings have been in progress for more than six weeks there has been no flagging of interest. Among a great many there is really a feeling of deep regret that the meetings are to close. Even the most ardent Christian has received an inspiration and church members have been aroused to their duty. The effect of the meetings will be felt in Fort Wayne for months and months after they close.

First Things First.
Dr. Lyon spoke Monday evening on "First Things First," declaring that Christ must be first in every life. During the course of his sermon he said that every doctor must be a Christian, otherwise he is not fit to practice his profession. He was referring to the fact that there should be no selfishness in the practice of medicine.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Charges by the German-American alliance and the German Historical society, of Toledo, that Federal Judge McKillits delivered an unneutral speech recently, declaring he "did not care how soon some one dropped a thousand bombs on Emperor Williams head," were referred today by President Wilson to the department of justice.

Officials pointed out, however, that neither the president nor the department has authority to censure a federal judge; that power is reserved to congress.

JUDGE ACCUSED BY GERMAN-AMERICANS

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 16.—The state yards at East Buffalo will close this afternoon under state and federal orders because of the reappearance of foot and mouth disease and there appears to be some uncertainty as to when they will reopen.

Italy Must Join War to Avoid Revolution.

London, Feb. 16.—(4:30 p. m.).—The prophecy that Italy would mobilize her army within a fortnight was made here today by Ridoletti Garibaldi, the Italian patriot. He said that unless the Italian government decided to participate in the war there would be a revolution.

GERARD REPORTS ON INFORMAL CONFERENCE

Washington, Feb. 16.—Ambassador Gerard at Berlin today reported on his informal conference with the German chancellor, von Bethmann-Hollweg, and high German officials about delivery of the American warship Germany to Germany.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Ambassador Gerard at Berlin today reported on his informal conference with the German chancellor, von Bethmann-Hollweg, and high German officials about delivery of the American warship Germany to Germany.

FRENCH PRESS SEES OTHERS IN IT SOON

Paris, Feb. 16.—America's reply to Germany's blockade notification has brought forth a chorus of praise from the principal writers in the French press. Even Georges Clemenceau, who hitherto has been disposed to criticize President Wilson, says the president has spoken the words the American people expected in such a way that Germany has no alternative but to back down.

Gabriel Hanotaux says in the Figaro: "The American note to Germany is an act of high historic initiative and the first step in the inevitable participation of neutrals in the great events which are dividing the world. President Wilson was obliged to pass from discussion to action. What do the measures mentioned in the note mean but that American warships will fall upon German submarines attacking American ships in total disregard of America's sovereign rights? Either Germany can give in or she can disregard Washington's note and go on with her plan to force England to capitulate. Then President Wilson would not recede from his position."

The proposal made by Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador to the United States, that Germany would withdraw its blockade order if the import of food was permitted by England, arrived too late for comment, but the newspapers caption the incident "Official German Blackmail."

SAYS ALL ARE IN DANGER.

Von Bethman-Holweg Puts New Emphasis on German Contention.

Rotterdam, via London, Feb. 16.—The chamberlain of commerce here has received a communication from the German consul producing a note from Chancellor von Bethman-Holweg in which he says: "In most cases German submarines will be unable to distinguish between neutral and British vessels, when encountered in the war zone. All merchantmen therefore run the risk of destruction. In order to avoid losses it is urgently necessary for neutral ships to keep away from the war zone. Germany can no longer regard the British merchant fleet as unarmed or entitled to warning before attack because merchantmen are equipped with guns and a large reward has been offered to the first merchant vessel which sinks a German submarine."

"Germany will pursue the war in the manner announced until Great Britain acknowledges the rules of naval warfare as fixed by the Paris and London declarations or until the neutral powers force this acknowledgment from England."

LAW MAY SOON GET CLUTCHES ON JACK

Negro Pugilist Will Be Extradited on Charge of Conspiracy.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist who fled to Europe after being sentenced to a year in the federal penitentiary for violation of the Mann act, will be extradited and returned to Chicago on a charge of conspiracy, according to a statement today by Charles F. Cline, United States district attorney.

The recent supreme court decision in a white slave case, holding that a conspiracy may be entered into to violate the act, was cited by Mr. Cline.

The offense for which Mr. Johnson was tried, District Attorney Cline said, is not extraditable, but a conspiracy to violate the United States laws is. If the pugilist is not returned through any of our various plans, either before or after the boxing match at Juarez, Mexico, he will be indicted for conspiracy, arrested at wherever he may be, and brought back.

"He may elude and escape to Europe again, but his freedom will be short lived."

AMBASSADOR GERARD COUNSELS CALMNESS

Berlin, Feb. 16.—The Lokal Anzeiger today publishes an interview with James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany, which reads as follows:

"I regard the relations today between our two countries calmly and with confidence, and I believe pending questions will be solved in a manner mutually satisfactory. The men at the head of the governments in Berlin and Washington are not permitting themselves to be influenced either by the press or by public criticism. The public in the United States as well as in Germany should await developments quietly."

An official statement reading as follows, was issued in Berlin today: "Inasmuch as it is to the interest of Great Britain that conflicts arise between Germany and neutral countries, it is thought in German circles that the English submarines, in order to bring about this end, may purposely sink one or more neutral ships. It is known also in the shipping circles that Great Britain has laid large quantities of mines against German submarines."

KING REX'S REIGN ENDS.

New Orleans Observes Mardi Gras Day as Carnival Closes.

New Orleans, Feb. 16.—Mardi Gras day, marking the end of the reign of Rex, king of the carnival of 1915, was observed here today with elaborate festivities. Business places, including the cotton exchange, all banks and the post-office, remained closed the greater part of the day.

Traffic on several blocks of Canal street was tied up and the space given over to merry-makers in fancy costumes. The Mardi Gras celebration will end tonight.

depended on God for healing. I would not have you think that I would do away with golly doctors, but some doctors look upon the human body as a big piece of meat and cut into it like they were cutting off pork chops. A doctor ought to be converted. A doctor has no more right to touch the holy temple without faith than a teacher has to stand before a class of pupils without being converted."

Should Read Good Books.

Dr. Lyon advocated the reading of good books. If a young man has to choose between books and a suit of clothes, take the books, for by so doing eventually he will be able to have both books and clothes.

"No matter how old, you should be a student," he urged. "Spend some time outside of your regular work; spend some time on the word of God; not only spiritually but intellectually." At this point he dwelt for some little time upon the wonders of the Bible and its wonderful teachings.

"You ought to know everything about something and something about everything," he declared.

But happiness cannot simply be found in book learning, the central thought throughout the entire discourse being that real happiness could only be had through the love of Jesus Christ.

"The mere accumulation of facts is not education," he continued. "Knowledge is knowing things and wisdom is knowing how, where and when to use that knowledge."

The speaker deplored the general inability of people of today to carry on a sensible conversation.

Not as Sociable.

"People are not as sociable as they used to be," he said. "Very few can carry on a conversation on any subject that is worth while." He attributed this condition to the fact that people do not take the time for the things worth while.

"It is a great thing to be a good mixer, to be pleasant, genial and hold up your end of the conversation," he continued. "We don't take the time for the things worth while." He told how people rush to the telephone today and say, hello, how are you, that's all, good-by—and run on with their work.

He urged the people to take some time for recreation and enjoyment, but to take the kind that will leave a good taste. He would not have a man spend his life merely in pleasure, however. He told of an old man eating at a hotel who was putting away everything before him.

"It is the only pleasure I get in life," the elderly gentleman exclaimed. Dr. Lyon called him a big hog.

The evangelist said that the great trouble in the colleges and universities of the country today is that the students think more of athletics and the social life than they do of their studies, their studies being of secondary consideration with them.

Speaks of the Financial.

Then the speaker spoke of the financial, declaring it to be harder for a rich man to be a Christian than a poor man.

"I believe God is calling men to make money for his cause," he said. "You may get all the money in Indiana and if you must pay for it with your soul you have struck a bad bargain."

"If you are really saved every dollar you have secured dishonestly must be paid back or you are going to hell," he exclaimed. "If there is anything in your business that is not on the square for God's sake give it up. You may be a financial prince, but in God's sight you may be a spiritual pauper."

The most important thing of all is the spiritual life. "The things of the world grow less and less, but the glory of Christian life is that it grows richer and richer and better and better throughout all the ages," he declared.

"Seek first the kingdom of God, for if you do not seek it first the chances are you won't seek it at all."

At this point the evangelist asked all who had commenced the Christian life before they were sixteen years old to raise their hands. Then he asked how many had commenced the Christian life before they were sixteen years old.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

FUNERAL OF DR. F. M. MAGERS AT EGE

Pioneer Physician of Churubusco Dies at His Home in That Town at the Age of 77.

Churubusco, Ind., Feb. 15.—The funeral of Dr. Frank M. Magers, for almost half a century a practicing physician in this state, whose death occurred Monday, will be held at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in the Roman Catholic church at Ege, a short distance over the line in Noble county. Dr. Magers was brought up in the faith of that church and held his membership in the parish of Ege. He had been ill for several weeks and consultations of the best physicians in this county and Fort Wayne were baffled in the efforts to give him relief. For the past week he had failed steadily and rapidly.

Dr. Magers was one of the best known men in this region, where he had practiced his profession since the early days when he was a "saddlebag" country doctor and made his rounds on horseback. He was born near Danville, Knox county, Ohio, Jan. 28, 1838, and was the last survivor of eight children born to his parents. After attending country schools he entered St. Mary's academy at Perryville, Ohio, at the age of 14 and studied there three years. He afterwards spent a year at Bardonia, Ky., in St. Thomas college. In 1855-56 he taught school near Avilla, where his older brother had settled. Thereafter he returned to Danville, O., and taught in that place, and he remained at the work for three years, coming back to Indiana then and teaching in Allen county east of Churubusco. Upon the death of his father he was appointed administrator of the estate and then began to read medicine with Dr. Bryant at Mt. Vernon, O. From there he went to the University of Michigan and studied medicine for a year, and in 1865 located at Churubusco and engaged in practice, and he soon became one of the best known physicians in this part of the state.

He was united in marriage Nov. 23, 1868, to Mary E. Metzger, of Allen county. She taught school in Allen county and also in this county after her marriage. They were the parents of seven children: Casimer B., electrician at the home for the feeble minded, Fort Wayne; Mrs. Will A. DeVault, of Kendallville; Edmund L., a railroad man at Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Lawrence Maloney, and Frank, of Glendive, Montana; Ursula Jo, of Churubusco. Gertrude passed away a few years ago. Mrs. Magers also survives.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY EXPELLED

Goshen Lad Refuses to Tell Where He Got Cigarettes.

Goshen, Ind., Feb. 16.—A student of the high school has been dismissed for smoking cigarettes and then refusing to tell where he purchased them when asked to turn state's evidence by Superintendent Mendenhall, who is making a determined effort to stop the use of cigarettes by high school boys and has been conducting an investigation as to where they are able to purchase them. Another student of the school has also been asked for information against dealers. A warrant has been issued for the boy who has been expelled, as he will be fined for using cigarettes, as he is a minor, unless he will make an affidavit as to where he got them. Several arrests are expected to be made late this afternoon or tomorrow morning. The young man who was expelled comes from a very highly respected family.

TWO THOUSAND AT FUNERAL

Auburn, Ind., Feb. 16.—Two thousand people paid their last respects to the late Mrs. J. R. Mannan, killed by the falling of the baptismal tank in the Christian church here, at a public funeral held in the tabernacle on East Seventh street Monday afternoon, which proved one of the saddest funerals Auburn has seen in many years. Peculiarly fitting were the plans for the obsequies, for during the six weeks' evangelistic meetings in the tabernacle Mrs. J. R. Mannan was one of the most regular attendants at the song services, being a member of the large union evangelistic choir. Rev. George T. Stephens, the tabernacle evangelist, spoke briefly. When he recalled the work Mrs. Mannan performed during the revivals here, there was scarcely a dry eye in the vast audience.

GOES TO WOMEN'S PRISON

Goshen, Ind., Feb. 16.—In the superior court at Elkhart this morning Mrs. Bertha Long, Goshen drug habit victim, pleaded guilty to grand larceny and was sentenced by Judge Harman to serve from one to fourteen years in the woman's prison at Indianapolis. She will be taken there as soon as arrangements can be made, which will be in a few days. Mrs. Long, who is a character here, has caused the police and the Associated Charities and Township Trustees much trouble. She admits she committed theft at the homes of William L. Shoots, Mrs. E. E. Drake and Charles R. Hulwick. At the Hulwick home she stole two diamond rings.

PNEUMONIA FATAL TO WOMAN

Auburn, Ind., Feb. 16.—Pneumonia, which developed from a cold contracted four weeks ago, resulted in the death of Mrs. Eli Warstler, aged 66 years, at her home three-quarters of a mile south of the Jackson Center school house in Jackson township. Mrs. Warstler had lived in that vicinity for the past twenty years and was well and widely known.

known. After being confined to her house several days, she decided she had recovered sufficiently to leave the house with safety, but doing so, she suffered a change for the worse, and a week ago she was obliged to take her bed. Besides a husband, three children, three sisters and two brothers survive.

PEACH CROP KILLED.

Warsaw, Ind., Feb. 16.—Practically all the peaches in Kosciusko county have been killed and the best possible crop cannot be more than 15 or 20 per cent. This is the information given out by B. W. Keith, professor of horticulture in the Winona College of Agriculture. Mr. Keith states that recently an examination was made of two orchards in the vicinity of Warsaw, which showed that over 85 per cent. of the peach buds had been killed. All the buds on the lower branches had been killed, not over 3 per cent. were alive on the medium branches and not over 10 per cent. were alive on the top branches. Whatever crop of peaches mature will be entirely in the top of the trees.

FIND BURIED NEEDLE.

Kendallville, Ind., Feb. 16.—Mrs. John Baughman had returned from the Lutheran hospital in Fort Wayne, where an X-ray was necessary to locate a needle in the palm of her hand. While washing lace curtains last week the needle pierced her hand and became so deeply embedded that it could not be located by the local attending physicians. By means of the X-ray the needle was located and removed. The injury proved quite painful, but it is not thought any other complications will develop.

SCHOOL BREAKS RECORD.

Decatur, Ind., Feb. 16.—School No. 6, in Kirkland township, with William Jackson as teacher, broke the banner school of the county in the matter of contributing to the Lincoln Memorial fund, being raised to aid the poor children in the war-stricken zone of Europe. There are twenty-four students enrolled in the school and Superintendent Christen has received as their contribution the sum of $10.60, a little more than 44 cents for each.

SOUGHT PROWERS; FIRED BARN.

Portland, Ind., Feb. 16.—Fire destroyed a small frame barn at the John Riley Rush home on West McNeil street early this morning. The fire evidently originated from matches lighted by Rush and a neighbor, probably three hours before the building was discovered ablaze, as they were searching through the barn for prowlers.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

1 Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure disease.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded; but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done.

11 And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

12 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

13 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

14 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

15 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

16 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

17 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

18 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

Votes for Indiana Women.

The Legislative Council of Indiana Women, which has thrown the full force of its influence and its effort behind the movement to secure at least partial suffrage for the women of Indiana professes itself much pleased at the manner in which the proposition has been received by members of the present legislature. The measure now prepared would invest some 700,000 women in this state with the right to cast their ballots for a portion of the elective offices, and it may be fairly assumed that once partial suffrage is granted, it will be very soon followed by complete investment of the women with the right of franchise.

In this connection it is interesting to note recent progress of the woman suffrage movement in other states. In New York a suffrage amendment has just been approved by the legislature and is now up to the voters for ratification.

January 26 the West Virginia senate voted to submit a suffrage amendment by a vote of 29 to 1. The house followed suit, and ratified the senate's action January 28, by a vote of 76 to 8.

On January 27 the committee on constitutional amendments of the Texas house reported favorably a suffrage amendment by a vote of 16 to 2.

On January 28 the Tennessee senate voted to submit a suffrage amendment 26 to 3. The next day the house likewise approved the amendment 74 to 14.

On February 2 the Arkansas legislature voted to submit a suffrage amendment. A unanimous vote was given in the New Jersey house on February 1 for suffrage, and on February 9 such an amendment was approved in Pennsylvania.

Suffrage measures have also been introduced this year in New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont and Missouri.

Both the antis and the doubting brethren might as well make up their minds that woman suffrage is coming and prepare to accept the edict gracefully and cheerfully.

Germany's very prompt declaration that she is willing to reconsider her war zone restrictions if Great Britain ceases her efforts to starve out the Germans by preventing foodstuffs reaching the civilian population of the German empire will in the eyes of the civilized world place the German side of the present controversy in much better light. It places upon the shoulders of Great Britain a responsibility that even with all her belligerency we do not believe she will care to assume, and despite the defiant attitude of the two foes we believe an agreement will be reached whereby each will in the interest of common humanity recede from a position that magnifies horror without bringing compensating benefits.

Before we smile at Canada's panic of fear over the appearance of paper fireworks balloons which she mistook for hostile aeroplanes, let us recall the agonizing days and the sleepless nights endured by Boston during the Spanish-American war in deadly fear of Cervera's fleet when as a matter of fact that Spanish armada never got within thousands of miles of Boston. Boston was hearing things and Canada is seeing them. The indicated necessity in each case appears to be something to settle the nerves.

The United States senate, having been unable to break the deadlock and get anywhere with the administration's ship purchase measure, has now voted for an investigation of all charges of influence at work for and against the bill. In view of the prevailing fashion these days, an investigation was about the most natural thing to expect along about this stage of the legislative fight.

Indianapolis may extend an invitation to Billy Sunday to conduct an evangelistic campaign in that city, and if one-half the things we've heard about Indianapolis are true, she needs him badly.

ANOTHER PERSONAL ENVOY

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

Announcement of the departure of another personal representative of the president to investigate conditions in Mexico recalls the unproductive missions of his many predecessors. In fact there promises to be as many personal envoys to Mexico as there are ex-presidents of that distracted country.

Duval West, the newest selection, was district attorney at San Antonio and has lived several years in Mexico. He intends to call in turn on Carranza, Villa, Zapata and such other leaders as may spring to the front during his stay below the Rio Grande. He is understood to be commissioned to remind them all of the desirability of respecting the lives and property of foreign residents and interests. This has been the function of most of his predecessors but perhaps constant reiteration may yet get the Mexican leaders to listen to it.

As to Mr. West being able to bring about any understanding or peace between the rival generals, provisional presidents and others, it is too much to be expected. Nevertheless, in view of Mr. Wilson's recent remark about the difficulty of getting the truth about Mexico, perhaps in a multitude of personal representatives he may be able to strike an average that may give him an approximation to the actual conditions there.

THE PLUMBER JOKE.

(Toledo Blade.)

An official of the Ohio Master Plumbers' association is calling upon the fraternity to rise in its might and strike down the plumber joke. He is so serious about it that it is possible he is giving the derisive old thing a new lease of life, when, had he let it alone, it might have perished from inanition.

The plumber is an absolute necessity in modern life. Nobody would think of trying to get along without him. Most people realize this, though they are not inclined to strow roses in his pathway. Instead they have given prominence to one of the eccentricities of the trade. The plumber does go back to the shop after a wrench and the people know it, and they have come to know it so well that they expect it as a matter of course, and reckon it as a part of the price that must be paid.

But why should the plumber be disturbed at the so-called joke? He should do the smiling himself. If it is a joke on the other fellow.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Louis A. Centlivre is now in New Orleans.

Miss Grace Woodward gave a reception yesterday afternoon.

Secretary John I. White, of the Bass works, has returned from the east.

Messrs. George W. Ewing and George McKinnin went to Lafayette last night to attend the institution of a lodge of Elks.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If feverish, bilious, constipated, give fruit laxative at once.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach ache, indigestion, diarrhea, gives a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "frits" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy. Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other brand.

Teaching Boys is This Woman's Mission

Mrs. Florence Milner.

Mrs. Milner has supervision of the boys from their kindergarten days to the time they enter college. She is said to be the only woman in the United States to hold so important a position in a boys' school.

Mrs. Milner has written several books of special interest to teachers and mothers.

headed came. The affair was planned as a surprise on Captain White, and when the committee detailed to escort the guest of honor to the banquet room went out to find him he could not be located and the banquet proceeded under gloomy circumstances without his genial presence.

Curb on Debate as House Takes Up Ship Bill Fight

Washington, Feb. 16.—President Wilson's fight for his ship bill was launched in the house today with a special rule limiting debate to six hours. Democratic leaders were sure that holding their majority firm they would have a new measure bearing the approval of the administration and probably attractive to some republicans ready for the fight in the senate over the ship purchase bill today awaited the action of the house on the amended shipping measure where the way for its passage during the day had been paved by a party caucus. In the meantime administration senators continued their efforts when the senate met today to force a cloture rule to end the republican filibuster.

The president conferred with Senators Kern and Stone, and afterward

Mr. Kern intimated the democrats had definite plans for getting the bill through the senate, but he refused to reveal details.

The president was told it will be impossible to rush the appropriation bills through the senate in three or four days.

President Wilson told callers today he favored a reasonable and general cloture rule in the senate. He believes in a rule to stop obstructive tactics, but which would not cut off fair debate. Discussing the shipping bill the president said he believed the majority of the senate was for it and that evidences of the need of its passage were accumulating. He told callers he did not expect the shipping bill nor the appropriation bills to fail, and therefore he had not finally considered calling an extra session.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Adv.

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two, in 24 hours your cough will be conquered or very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way.

The above mixture makes a fine pink syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse, tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly heals the inflamed membranes which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine, which is so soothing to the membrane that it is so effective.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex"—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FORT WAYNE BILLS PASSED BY HOUSE

But Zearing Bill for a Half Holiday for Officials Meets Defeat.

Indianapolis, Feb. 16.—The Indiana house yesterday afternoon passed three measures amending different provisions of the municipal corporations code, which were introduced by Representatives Kinder and Wyss, of Fort Wayne. The Wyss measure would make it possible for a property owner, after waiving payment of a public improvement assessment, to later pay it off by payment of the outstanding principal and accrued interest. One of the Kinder measures provides for remonstrators to improvements proposed in second-class cities filing their remonstrance in writing and also giving persons benefited by an improvement ten years in which to pay the amount of the benefit. The other would provide for payment of certain assessments on public improvements along with regular taxes.

The afternoon session of the house resulted in the passage of eight bills, in the killing of two others, including the Drago chiropractic measure and the Van Horn bill to enable cities of the third, fourth and fifth classes to fix tax levies of from two to five cents on the $100 assessed valuation for charitable purposes. The Drago measure, which provided for public service commission of the state ordering interchange freight switches to be erected between steam and electric railways, again failed of passage. It received 46 votes for to 44 against, lacking five votes having a constitutional majority.

The Cleary bill, which provides for the prosecuting attorney appearing in insanity proceedings in the justices of the peace courts of his county for the defendant, passed by a vote of 86 to 4. The author said the bill is designed to prevent the "choking" of persons to insane hospitals. Representative Durham, of Greencastle, said the bill appeared to him to be a "prosecutor's fee bill."

The township trustees of the state will be benefited if the Deniston measure, which passed the house, becomes a law. It provides for the trustees' bond being equal to the largest amount of money that would come into his hands at any one time, and would result in a large reduction in the amount of bond required of most officers.

Persons guilty of tampering with any safety device on a common carrier, or with the signal service of a railway company, could be fined, upon conviction, from $50 to $500 to which a jail sentence of from thirty days to six months might be added, by the provisions of the bill of Representative Waltz, of Evansville, which passed 80 to 1.

The bill of Senator Clarke, proposing an amendment to the housing law to enable local health officers to condemn dwellings which are unfit for human habitation in their opinion, after a short discussion in the lower house was made a special order of business for next Wednesday afternoon.

Senator Zearing's bill to make Saturday an official holiday for state, county and township offices in the cities of Indianapolis, Fort Wayne and Evansville was defeated by a vote of 24 to 20.

WINTER DOUBLES WORK.

In summer the work of eliminating poisons and acids from the blood is helped by perspiration. In cold weather, with little outdoor work or exercise to cause sweating, the kidneys have to do double work. Foley's Kidney Pills help overworked, weak and diseased kidneys to filter and cast out of the blood the waste matter that causes pains in sides or back, rheumatism, lumbago, stiffness of joints, sore muscles and other ills resulting from improper elimination.—Dreier Drug Company.—Adv.

INTO SANITARY DISTRICTS.

City Is Divided Into Seventy-Seven for Sanitary Inspection.

Under direction of Dr. J. H. Gilpin, secretary and executive officer of the board of health, the city has been divided into seventy-seven sanitary districts and a colored map has been prepared showing the boundaries of each of them. This division into districts is done to facilitate inspection and the keeping of records. An inspector will go over each district, inspect alleys, backyards, vaults, stables, chicken houses and examine and report on all conditions that relate in any way to public health. These inspections will begin as soon as settled weather makes the work wholly practicable and will be continued constantly. The records in the health office will show at all times when a district was inspected and by whom. By this system it will be possible at any time to locate responsibility for failure to make thorough inspection. Another result will be the prosecution of persons who permit about their premises any conditions that are in violation of the laws and ordinances. One of the city inspectors will be detailed solely to have charge of contagious disease and quarantine and the others will be kept at work on the sanitary inspections.

LAFAYETTE IS "SURPRISED."

But Will Look After Her Interest in Proposed Consolidation.

Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 16.—Surprise was expressed here over the report that Purdue university is seeking to absorb Indiana university and that by the consolidation of the two institutions, as proposed by the Van Auker bill, Indiana is to lose her identity. The people of Lafayette understand the suggestion to mean a consolidation of the two universities under the title of the University of Indiana and the Purdue College of Technology and Agriculture or the Indiana-Purdue university or Indiana University and the Purdue School of Agriculture and Technology, provided the alumni of each school shall be known as the alumni of whichever name shall be decided upon. Purdue and the people of Lafayette are making no campaign for the consolidation, taking the ground that the question should be settled as an economic measure. However, the advantages of Lafayette will be presented to the legislature.

HERE IS A QUESTION NO SOUL ON EARTH AND NO ANGEL IN HEAVEN CAN ANSWER, SAYS EVANGELIST LYON.

THE UNANSWERABLE QUESTION.

I have a question that I cannot answer. It is a question you cannot answer. It is a question no soul on this earth nor the angels in heaven could answer. It is found in the words of our text, Hebrews 2:3, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?" The world is past the point of believing the deity of Christ, and the truth of God's word. A German rationalist lately gave as the fruit of his investigation forty years of the Christian religion, not from the spiritual, but from the rational standpoint, that there was more evidence to substantiate the facts of the birth, the teachings, the works, the death, and the resurrection of Jesus Christ than of any other facts of human history. William E. Gladstone declared not long before his death that of the sixty great English statesmen with whom he had been acquainted during the fifty years of his public life, fifty-six had not only been Christian believers, but also active Christian workers.

The dean of the law school of Harvard university, some time since, gave to the senior class the four gospels as the best type of true evidence in all law or literature. "Here are four men," said he, "who are writing at different times, under different conditions, from different viewpoints, and each infringing on his statements his own personality. Upon some minor details there are some things which might seem discrepancies. If in every particular there was complete agreement, we lawyers would conclude that there was collusion between the witnesses." He proceeded to illustrate this by saying that the gospel of Matthew speaks of Jesus as healing two blind men when He came out from Jericho. Luke and Mark only mention one, and Mark says his name was Bartimeus. In other particulars he notices differences in detail. But, says he, "In regard to the main facts, there is absolute agreement." With such an array of witnesses as these, I would be presuming upon the intelligence of this audience to try to prove the truth of Scripture. It is not our business to substantiate the Scriptures. It is their mission to support and strengthen your faith and mine.

Then says some one, "If almost everyone believes in Christ and the Christian life, almost everyone will be saved." Oh, no, they will not. Why? On account of one great fact, which is the basis of my message tonight. It is the fact of neglect. "How shall we escape if you neglect such great salvation?"

What are the causes of this neglect? It is frequently due to thoughtlessness. There are many who never think seriously and soberly on any great subject. In the rush and hurry of these modern days, so many lives are distracted. They do not permit their minds to dwell upon any theme for any length of time. Solitude is the mother country of the strong.

This neglect is also due to Christ being crowded out of the life. People give place to everything else. They have time and thought for money-making, for pleasure, for society, for politics, but they have no time for Christ. The thousand and one things close at hand, clamoring for recognition, absorb the attention, deaden the conscience, and deafen the ears to the call of God. The thorn-crowned Christ is left standing outside the heart's door knocking for admission.

This neglect is also due to a lack of properly estimated values. Things are judged from the wrong viewpoint, from a false perspective. The thing that will bring momentary pleasure allures and absorbs the attention where matters of supreme importance are disregarded.

But no matter what may be the cause of neglect, its result is always disastrous. We see the consequences of neglect in other things. In agriculture, for example, a farmer does not have to sow weed seeds in order to fail to harvest. Let him neglect to plant at the proper time, to cultivate the growing crop, to harvest it when matured, and its loss is certain.

This same principle operates in physical health. Supposing an athlete neglects proper nourishment, exercise and sleep; he will become weak and diseased. He does not need to take poison to destroy his vitality.

We see the application of this same principle in education. A pupil would not have to destroy his text books in order to be ignorant. All that is necessary is to neglect study, and when examination time comes he will fail. Ancient mythology told of Minerva, the goddess of wisdom, springing full grown from the brain of Jupiter. But this is not true to nature and to life. The child comes into the world not educated, but through neglect and education.

ation and salvation are both positive things, things which are plus, which are additional, things which we did not before possess.

We see also the result of neglect in commercial life. Let a workman neglect to get up and get to his shop or office or factory on time. Let a merchant come down to his place of business at 10 or 11 o'clock and close up at 2 in the afternoon. Let him neglect to keep fresh, seasonable goods on the shelves, neglect to keep his accounts collected and his bills paid, and his failure will be certain. A man would not have to burn his stock of goods to be bankrupt. Benjamin Franklin spoke a great truth when he said, "Keep your shop and your shop will keep you." Our American humorist adds to that, "Nothing will run itself, except it is running down hill."

It is plain, then, that you do not need to antagonize Christianity to be lost. Indifference spells certain doom. To be saved means an earnest, positive effort, the acceptance of Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. What do you need to do to be lost? Nothing; remain as you are. I would not charge it upon any of you that you antagonize Christianity. There are those who are marshalled under the black flag of vice, but I do not believe for a moment that you are included in those ranks. Yet it is not necessary that you fight the gospel of Christ. Indifference is sufficient. Jesus says, "He that is not with me is against me." During a great war a critical battle was imminent and at roll call it was found that a soldier of one company was missing. A man was detailed to search for him. He found him in a flower garden, carefully picking the flowers and pulling them to pieces, throwing them on the ground. Said the man, "What are you doing here?" Carelessly, he replied, "I am doing no harm." "But, man, a battle is approaching and the commander expects every man to be in his place." That man was arrested, court-martialed, convicted and shot, not because he was fighting in the ranks of the enemy, but because he was plainly failing to perform his duty.

There is a psychological, as well as a spiritual basis for this deadly result of neglect. All of us are very largely creatures of habit. Supposing a man decides to get up early in the morning. The night before he winds his alarm clock and sets it near the head of his bed. Just when it seems he is sleeping the soundest he hears a great rattle and clatter and he jumps almost to the ceiling. He opens his eyes, looks around, it is dark, he is sleepy and he says to himself, "I will take just a short nap, then I will get up." The next evening he winds the alarm again. At the same time the next morning the noise is repeated, but he does not jump as high. He goes back to sleep with less difficulty. Let him continue this process and at last he can set his alarm ever so near the head of his bed and he can sleep through it all as calmly as a babe upon its mother's breast. So long has God's alarm bell been sounding in some of our ears, and you have unheeded it until at last your sensibilities have become dulled and deadened. These notes of warning make no impression upon your mind.

It is the greatness of this salvation that leaves any soul absolutely without any excuse for neglecting it. It must have taken the angels and the archangels with the Father, Son and Spirit, in the great council of heaven, to plan a salvation so complete and comprehensive, a salvation so great that it will meet the needs of all classes and conditions, not only the wicked, but the poor, the unlearned and the educated, the young and the old, not only the good, but also this salvation is great enough to save the heathen.

It is a great salvation also on account of the greatness of its cost. It cost the life of the Son of God Himself. The superintendent of a coal mine, a Christian man, was showing a friend, an unbeliever, through the mine. At last the tour of inspection was completed, and as they were returning they were talking about the Christian life. This skeptical friend remarked, "It seems to me the plan of salvation is unreasonable. It promises us so much for what little we give in return." Just then they reached the foot of the shaft. They stepped into the elevator. The superintendent pushed a button, and quickly they were lifted to the sunlight above. "Is it not marvelous?" exclaimed the visitor, "that we can be so easily and quickly lifted from the darkness down there thousands of feet in the underground into the light up here?" "Yes," said the superintendent, "it is easy for us, but the sinking of this shaft cost a million dollars, and the lives of twelve men." Seeing a chance to emphasize and illustrate a spiritual truth, he said, "Supposing a man who is in the darkness of sin, neglecting the great salvation, and as he is being lifted up, he neglects to hold on to the rope, and he falls back into the darkness, what then?"

indeed for you and me to be saved. Had it not been made easy we might have had an excuse for neglecting Christ, but, oh, how infinite the cost! It was at the price of the suffering and the death of the Son of God."

It is the greatness of this salvation that leaves any human soul absolutely without excuse for neglecting it. It is said that one evening at a social gathering in Paris there was present the famous French painter, Meissonier. At one time in the evening there stood near him a girl who had a white satin fan. Kindly he turned to her and with a smile said, "Little girl, if you will loan me your fan, I will take it to my studio and paint on it a picture for you." The little, frivolous miss tossed her head in disdain and as she turned away she said, "Do you suppose I would have my nice fan spoiled with all your nasty paints?" Such a picture a queen or an empress would have bowed in homage to have secured from the brush of the greatest artist of his day. Yet this little maiden turned away from it with scorn. Jesus spoke something about not casting your pearls before swine.

In the last place, this is a great salvation which God offers you on account of the greatness of his results, what it will save you to and what it will save you from. I cannot begin to describe to you the greatness and glory of heaven, what it will mean to be with all the good and great throughout the ages, under the inspiration and instruction of the Son of God Himself. "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for them." Neither is it possible for the human imagination to conceive what it will mean to be lost, cast into the outer darkness where there will be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth. If every individual in this audience could get one glimpse of the agony and remorse of eternal doom there would be an end to all spirit of indifference and neglect.

The greatness of these consequences leaves anyone absolutely without excuse. What business man in your city would be excused for neglecting to attend his mother's funeral? Supposing the crape was on the door, the hearse at the gate, and the sorrowing friends had gathered in the home to pay their respects to the memory of that departed life. The minister is about to arise at the head of the coffin to begin the service, when it is noted that the only son is absent. One of his business friends quietly steps out a side door and goes to seek him. He finds him down at his place of business, sitting at his desk, busily engaged upon financial affairs. He says to him, "My friend, have you not forgotten something today?" "What?" replied the man. "Why, do you not remember that this is the afternoon of your mother's funeral?" "Oh, yes, I know it," he replied, "but this is one of my busy days. It is near the end of the month, and I have many things to attend to. There are some accounts I must see about collecting, some bills I will have to pay, and also I expect some men in on this next train with whom I am arranging a business deal by which I hope to clear several hundred dollars." The other man stands there amazed. He says, "Was not your mother a good mother?" "Oh, yes; never did a man have a better mother than I had. She was always so patient and unselfish and loving and kind. During my childhood I was not strong and my mother watched over me day and night and I want to tell you that that sickness which resulted in her death, the doctors say, was largely due to her watching over me during my long illness. She would not entrust me to the care of nurses. She wanted to be at my bedside constantly. She literally gave her life for mine." Now the man with his intensity almost at white heat exclaims, "Why, man, are you not going to attend your mother's funeral? Are you not going to honor her memory?" "Oh, I think I will some time, when I feel just like it. I am too busy now; I am not ready yet." Supposing a business man of your city would treat in such a manner the loving memory of his mother. How long would he do business in your midst?

And yet there is one who loves you with a love infinitely stronger than that of any earthly friend, Jesus Christ the Son of God, who suffered all manner of shame and reproach and agony for you. What return are you going to make for his love? Your condemnation is not for having done wrong. It is for neglecting God's great gift. How shall you escape if you neglect this great salvation?

In 1890 there were a few more than 100,000,000 people in the world who were not Christians. Today there are more than 1,000,000,000 people in the world who are not Christians. This is a great salvation also on account of the greatness of its cost. It cost the life of the Son of God Himself. The superintendent of a coal mine, a Christian man, was showing a friend, an unbeliever, through the mine. At last the tour of inspection was completed, and as they were returning they were talking about the Christian life. This skeptical friend remarked, "It seems to me the plan of salvation is unreasonable. It promises us so much for what little we give in return." Just then they reached the foot of the shaft. They stepped into the elevator. The superintendent pushed a button, and quickly they were lifted to the sunlight above. "Is it not marvelous?" exclaimed the visitor, "that we can be so easily and quickly lifted from the darkness down there thousands of feet in the underground into the light up here?" "Yes," said the superintendent, "it is easy for us, but the sinking of this shaft cost a million dollars, and the lives of twelve men." Seeing a chance to emphasize and illustrate a spiritual truth, he said, "Supposing a man who is in the darkness of sin, neglecting the great salvation, and as he is being lifted up, he neglects to hold on to the rope, and he falls back into the darkness, what then?"

LYCEUM FIVE PLAN TO DEFEAT OTTAWA

Although the Ottawa Germans have twice appeared in this city and each time taken a game from the St. Paul's and St. Mary's teams, the Lyceum basketball team expect to halt their winning streak in this city when they play them Tuesday evening in St. Patrick's Lyceum. Confidence has a great deal to do in winning games and with every member of Manager Lennart's team in good condition, it seems possible that they may be led to victory.

The game promises to be an interesting one and a large crowd is expected as is indicated by the large advance seat sale. A preliminary will be played and the main attraction will begin at the usual time, 9 o'clock.

CATCHER SULLIVAN HELD MANY RECORDS

Chicago, Feb. 16.—William J. Sullivan, veteran catcher of the Chicago American league club, who was given his unconditional release yesterday, held many records during the twenty years he played professional baseball. Sullivan compiled here today show that Sullivan caught in 1,300 games during the sixteen years' career as a major leaguer. In one season, while a member of the Dubuque, Iowa, club, he caught 124 consecutive games. He also won distinction a few years ago by catching three balls dropped from the Washington monument.

Thirty members of the Chicago American league club were making preparations today to depart for Paso Robles, Cal., tonight to begin spring training. The players will travel in a special train of six cars. Including the players, wives and friends of Charles A. Comiskey, president of the club, the party will number about sixty-five.

"It places me immensely that ripresentatives in the grand old race are still to be found kickin' hell out iv ach other just as their fathers did before 'em for centuries. 'Tis a noble profession, Hinnessy, and the participation in this discipline iv the auld dard in it iv late days proves conclusively that not all of them have degenerated into bank presidents and railroad owners.

"It sets me back twenty years to view th' other names connected with this avishpious evint. Mike Collins as promoter, Thomas 'Under Cover' Walsh as manager iv one and Thomas Gibbons actin' for the other, I would suggest Duffy, who does work iv thot kind, as referee.

"All that thin would be necessary to complete the arrangements would be a goodly ripresentation iv the Ancient Order of Hibernians at the ringside and a band that would play St. Patrick's Day in the Mornin' as the min climbed over the ropes in their green tiths.

"Thin, Hinnessy, we could settle back in our sates and enjoy a battle accorthin to th' rules, and perhaps later in th' evening adjourn to the carner 'sloon to view several of them without rules.

"'Tis a contest worth goin' to see, me bye. It will be hild March the second, at Hudson, Wisconsin, a town almost intirely surrounded by republicans and Swades.

"H' min have mit vance before. 'Twas in December two years ago in Nu York that they fought and th' evint resembled a foot race more than a stand up, give and take. But this time you may rist assured th' bloody omadious are goin' to fight."

TELLS OF A TRIPLE KILLING ON SINGLE

Wild Bill Donovan Wins Championship at Fanning Bee.

New York, Feb. 16.—During a fanning bee recently several well known players were discussing exceptional happenings in baseball. Plays of every kind and variety were mentioned until the conversation had veered around to Wild Bill Donovan, who had smilingly accepted the statements. There was a lull in the story telling when Wild Bill put in:

"Did any of you fellows ever see a triple killing on a single? When the All-Nationals went west in 1902 we opened against another all-star aggregation at Hamilton, O. In the first inning of the game we got a man on first and second, nobody out and Wahoo Sam Crawford at bat. Red Dooin was catching for them and Miller Huggins was playing second base.

"Sam gave the hit and run signal and the men on bases started with the pitch. Sam met the ball squarely for a single into left field. The man on second rounded third for home and the man on first too around second for third.

"Lefty Houtz was playing left field for the other side and he came in with the crack of the bat, scooped the ball off the ground and shot it to Dooin on a line.

"The man who had rounded third saw the ball was going to beat him to the plate so he stopped and started back to third. The other runner also turned round, touched third, and started back to second.

"Crawford was already past first and tearing for second. Dooin sized up the play immediately, made a bluff throw to third and whipped the ball to Huggins, who touched Crawford sliding into second, feet first, then turned in time to put the ball on the other man coming back to second head first.

"The man who was almost to the plate, and who turned back was standing off third watching the play when Huggins touched Sam and the other player, then wheeled and threw to third, nailing his man for the third out."

"You win," was the verdict of the fanning players.

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by muscular and inflammatory rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

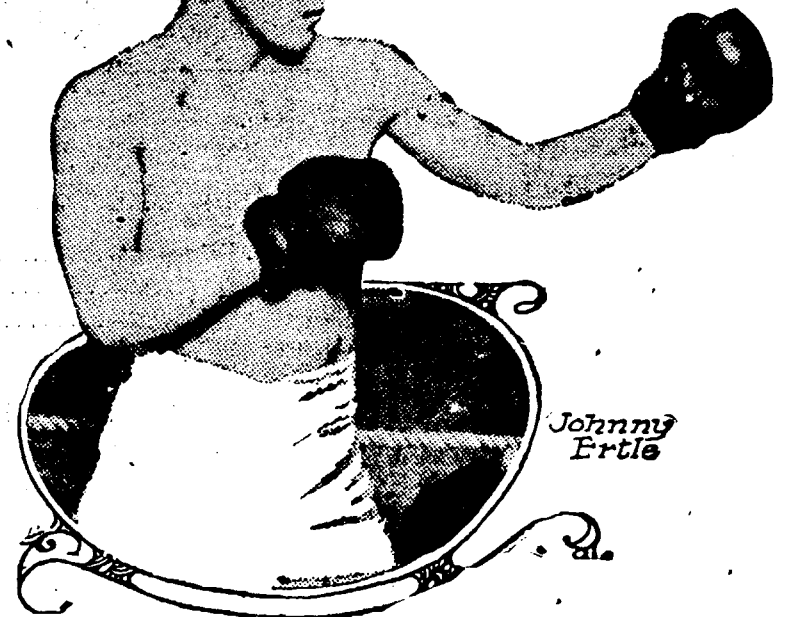

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-sought-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

Here it comes. Ahead of the robins, ahead of the crocuses. What, in spite of all last fall's grouches, many of us have eagerly been looking for and waiting to devour—

The first box score. True, it comes from the far off southland, below the frost belt—comes at a time when we're hesitating between earmuffs and an umbrella.

We can't, with physical organs, see the action or hear the cheering. But it's worth something even to read about it at long range and to realize that, very soon, the great occasion will be upon us here in Fort Wayne, too.

Yes, we remember you said, last October, in the mix-up of the baseball war, "Never again!"

Yet, confound your cantankerousness, you know blamed well you didn't mean it.

Of course, you'll go to the opener in 1915 and yell as you always yell and beef all the way home if the home team loses.

Though it may be, as you say, that the game has got into the clutches of a lot of mercenaries; though players and managers are both too greedy; though you'd like to see many of 'em tied in a bag and dumped overboard at sea; you know darn well, you old four-finger, that you can't let spring come without catching the fan fever.

So you'll be at the game, and you'll be cheering for the home team.

BURY THE HATCHET IN WEISSER PARK

Peace Follows Fitter War and Factions Are to Unite in Year.

The war is over. Peace has come to spread her comforting pinions over the scene of conflict. The hatchet is buried. There will be no further contest over the proposal to enlarge and complete the Weissers park. The threatened suit to have the park board mandamus to proceed with the work under its resolution will not be brought. The belligerent factions have come to a realization that the bitter strife that was waged over this issue will, if persisted in, work harm to the Seventh and Tenth wards of which the southeast park district is comprised, and have resolved to work together for the advancement of their section of Fort Wayne. After having had several conferences the advocates of the Weissers park enlargement have notified the board of park commissioners that they will no longer strive for the object of their fight at this time, but will pursue a campaign of education through the next twelve months and when such a proceeding becomes valid will request the board to renew the proceedings, believing that after the lapse of a year those who have opposed the improvement will have become friends of the project. Those who have led the opposition also have informed the park board of their belief that a year hence there will be no objection to the improvement. Following the action of the board in holding the remonstrance sufficient and putting further steps up to the people to seek recourse in the courts, a better feeling has developed among the residents of the Seventh and Tenth wards and there is now a rapidly increasing disposition to work together for their mutual good and the welfare of their district. This happily ends what doubtless has been the most obstinate and protracted struggle over the issue of a proposed to effect a public improvement this city has ever seen. It is believed that next year the project to enlarge and complete Weissers park will be carried to success without serious opposition.

EXPERT COMES TO SHOW 'EM.

First Segment Sewer Block Is Placed in Fort Wayne.

Under the direction of an expert from the factory at Akron, O., where segment sewer block is made, the first of that material for building sewer arches was placed in Fort Wayne Tuesday afternoon in the big main sewer now being built in the southeast part of the city. S. L. Sheets & Co., contractors for the work, had the expert come on to give a demonstration and show the Sheets workmen how to build a sewer of segment block, and the operation was begun at Piqua and Darrow avenues, where the trenching was inaugurated. The Sheets company expects to make rapid progress with the work and to have it completed early in July. The big conduit will be over a mile in length and will drain above a square mile of territory.

AT THE TEMPLE.

It is difficult to believe that Harry Steppe is not flitting after seeing him shuffle across the stage as Ignatz Cohen in the crack burlesque at the Temple this week, but that notion is knocked out of one's head after seeing the comedian tango. He could quit making laughs and by selecting any one of a dozen expert dancers from among the "Girls from the Folies," pick out a soft job for himself in vaudeville as a tango dancer.

"The Lady Pirates" is a two act farce with a bundle of laugh compelling situations and a long score of musical numbers. No matter what manner of entertainment one likes he is bound to find it in this production, as there is rag time music, classical music, every variety and breed of dancing and a wealth of pretty girls.

Mrs. J. P. Tinkham Succumbs to Heart Trouble
—The Deaths.

Mrs. Matilda Tinkham, widow of the late John P. Tinkham, who died last March, passed away at 12:30 o'clock Tuesday at the family home, 833 West Main street at the age of seventy years. Mrs. Tinkham had been ailing for the past three or four years, but had only been bedfast for two weeks and her death comes as a shock to her many acquaintances and friends. Death was due to heart trouble.

The deceased was born in Williams county, Ohio, November 17, 1844, but had resided in Fort Wayne for the last forty years, moving here from Angola, where she had resided several years. She was a member of the Wayne Street Methodist Episcopal church and an active worker in its affairs. Mrs. Tinkham in her life exemplified to the largest degree the fine graces of Christian motherhood, and was intensely devoted to her home and her friends and helpful to all about her. She possessed a very wide circle of friends who will be deeply grieved to learn of her demise.

She is survived by one son by her first marriage, Carl W. Bridge, of Portsmouth, Washington; six daughters, Misses Cora, Mabel, Blanche, Elsie, Etn and Grace; two brothers and two sisters—Dan Johnson, of Van Wert; Amos Johnson, of Kendallville; Mrs. Charles Noble, of Olney, Ill.; and Mrs. Harriet Brooks, of Pittsford, Mich. Four grandchildren also survive.

KUEHNERT.

Mrs. Augusta Kuehnert, wife of August F. Kuehnert, of Lake township, seven miles northwest of the city, died at 2:45 o'clock Monday morning at the family residence at the age of 65 years. She had been ailing since last June, but death was due to paralysis.

The deceased was born in Germany, but moved to this country when quite young. She is survived by her husband and six children: Mrs. F. Fortmeyer, Mrs. C. Hildebrand, Mrs. G. C. Braun, all of this city, and August C. Gottlieb, C. and George T. Kuehnert, all of R. R. No. 3.

MARRIED 23 YEARS; ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Sarah Roth Says Husband, Ernest Roth Always Has Been Cruel.

After living with her husband for almost twenty-three years, Sarah Roth declares she cannot endure life with Ernest Roth any longer and has begun action in the superior court for divorce. They were wed amid the noise and reek of Columbus's nativity day, 1892, and separated the 15th inst. The plaintiff charges from the beginning of their married life her husband subjected her to cruel and inhuman treatment, calling her vile and indecent names—too vile and indecent to set out in the complaint—and that during the past two years he has failed to properly provide for her, besides repeatedly threatening to do her bodily injury. Fearing, she says, that he will execute these threats she asks the court to issue an order to restrain him from molesting her at her home, 3247 Webster street, or elsewhere. She asks the custody of three children, aged 15, 12 and 8 years, respectively.

Damage Suit on Trial.
The suit of Robert B. Barager vs. the Ohio Electric Railway company for $10,150 damages for bodily injuries to himself and injuries to his motorcycle, is on trial in the circuit court. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant was at fault when he was struck by one of the cars on the Ohio Electric line and badly injured and his motorcycle wrecked at a crossing near New Haven.

Notes of the Courts.
After a trial that lasted all day Monday in the circuit court in the case of Floyd Lambert et al. vs. Joseph Welck, to foreclose a mechanic's lien for $15, Judge Eggenman found for the defendant.

Frank Martin, who has been sued by John Strawbridge for possession of a valuable hunting dog of which both claim ownership, has filed a motion in the circuit court for a change of venue. Martin was sued in the court of Justice Grabner and took a change of venue to Justice Niemman, where he got a verdict. Then Strawbridge appealed to the circuit court and now Martin has made another move. The surety of the peace case against Samuel Kovat, a foreigner who resides on Hanna street, has been certified to the circuit court by Justice Henry J. Grabner. The suit of Abe and Elsie Well vs. the Maryland Casualty company has been dismissed from the circuit court.

The circuit court has appointed the Citizens' Trust company administrator of the estate of the late Marion B. Johnson, who at the time of his death was cashier of that financial institution.

The superior court has granted a divorce to Elizabeth Rader from Harvey E. Rader and restored her maiden name of Elizabeth Rader. Rader is now in the penitentiary for forgery.

TEACHERS MEET TO DISCUSS CHARGES

As the result of a statement by Dr. Milford H. Lyon at the tabernacle that several pupils who had taken the stand for Christ and were being ridiculed by certain teachers, Acting Principal L. C. Ward, at the suggestion of Superintendent Study, Monday evening called a meeting of the high school faculty.

Not a single teacher was able to shed light on the matter. Superintendent Study stated Tuesday afternoon that he believed the whole thing was the result of a misunderstanding, although he knew nothing concerning the charges as no formal complaint had been made to him.

Beck-Klotz.
A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's Catholic church this morning at 9 o'clock in the marriage of Miss Edith Klotz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Klotz, of East DeWald street, to Mr. Joseph Beck, of Chicago, a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Beck of that city. Father Charles Thiele officiated at the nuptial mass. Messrs. Anthony and Sylvester Klotz, brothers of the bride, acted as ushers at the church. Miss Nora Klotz, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Henry Bogenschuetz were bridesmaid and groomsmen. The bride made a very good-looking appearance in a suit of Pacific blue gartering with hat to match in coloring and blouse of embroidered chiffon. The bride wore no flowers but carried her prayerbook and that had a handsome marker of ribbon with sweetpeas and swansonia blossoms.

The bridesmaid was gowned in a pink crepe de meteor with touches of real lace in its trimmings and her hat and slippers were pink in coloring. A bouquet of pink Killarney roses was the finishing touch of beauty to Miss Klotz's costume. The wedding party went to the home of the bride's parents right from the church and partook of a wedding breakfast served only to relatives with the exception of Rev. Father Thiele and Rev. Father Burtillat. The breakfast table was artistic in its decoration of pink candles and pink roses. Mrs. Beck entered for the breakfast. This afternoon the bride and groom left for the new home and will take a trip of some extent and time before the new home is ready for occupancy.

IN THE CHURCHES
FORT WAYNE IS ON THE ROUTE OF TOUR PARTY
International Sunday School Workers Will Be in the City March 16.

The itinerary of the International Sunday School association's annual tour of the United States has just been announced, which gives the information that Fort Wayne is on the route of the workers who will be in this city March 16. Marion Lawrence, general secretary of the association, in a communication to the city announces that the plan and nature of this tour will be announced next week.

In view of the fact that these workers are coming, the local Sunday school organization will hold a meeting of its official body Tuesday evening in the tabernacle, following the close of the evangelistic service. The members of this party will be Marion Lawrence, W. C. Pearce, dean of the International Training school; George W. Bond and Bert Cashmen, and two other men who have not been selected. A tour was made last year by six men visiting four states and ten cities. Eleven days were consumed in the tour, during which time sixty meetings were held and 25,000 people addressed. In most of the cities on the last tour noon luncheons of Christian business men were held and in the afternoon in some places, teachers' conferences. A large mass meeting is then held in the evening.

Congress Will March.
The members of the Young Men's Forward congress will meet Wednesday evening at the First Baptist church at 7 o'clock and will march to the tabernacle on West Main street in a body. A drum corps, composed of members of the congress, will head the procession. Every president has been urged to have his class members in attendance.

Lenten Services Wednesday.
German Lenten services will be held Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the St. John's Reformed church. The pastor announces that Rev. A. Bayring, of Cincinnati, will be present and will deliver the sermon.

NEW JERSEY FALLS IN LINE.

State Senate Passes Suffrage Amendment, 17 to 4.
Trenton, N. J., Feb. 16.—The senate today passed the woman suffrage amendment to the constitution, 17 to 4. The house passed the resolution two weeks ago and both houses having acted on the resolution last year the question will be submitted to the voters for acceptance or rejection in September next.

OPENS WEDNESDAY

Old Fort Packing Co. Will Welcome You to Their New Market.

A new meat market will open its doors to the Fort Wayne public tomorrow moving at the corner of Wayne and Francis streets. The store is one of the handsomest in the city and will be known as the "Old Fort Packing Co." Mr. Jos. J. Miller, for sixteen years with Swift and Co., of Chicago, and for the past year manager of that company's local branch, severing his connection with them to embark in business for himself, together with Mr. Earl Henschen, a well known Fort Wayne stock buyer, are the members of the new firm. The new market is handsomely decorated in white tiling and blue enameled walls and every part of the plant is open to the public and inspection solicited at all times. The purchaser can step into the rear rooms and see just how the sausage and other product he is purchasing is made. Among the other sanitary innovations that these gentlemen will introduce in the meat business is that of wrapping every package of meat sold in waxed paper so that there will be no stain or leakage, a feature that will highly commend itself to the housewife. Telephone have been installed and delivery will be made to all parts of the city.

MUST BUILD NEW CONNECTION.

Additional Sewer Work Necessary to Lakeside Pumps.

The board of works will doubtless order the construction of a new conduit to connect the Morton and Tecumseh streets sewer mains with the new sewage lift pumps in Lakeside because there is not sufficient gravity flow of sewage to the pumps. The new sewer will be lower down than the connecting sewer that was built last year and it is believed will correct the difficulty now experienced. It will be about 1,100 feet in length and eighteen inches in diameter. Under present conditions the flow does not come to the pumps rapidly enough to keep them going. If the new sewer is ordered the

SHOP AND RAIL ROAD NEWS

WAS MAIL ROUTE AGENT 30 YEARS

C. W. Kirkpatrick, on Wash
bush Trains 2 and 5,
Dies Suddenly.

The funeral of C. W. Kirkpatrick, the train mail clerk residing at Maumee, O., for a number of years, was held at Lafayette, Ind., this afternoon and was attended by a number of the mail train clerks and railroad men who were acquainted with the deceased. Mr. Kirkpatrick had a run between St. Louis and Toledo on Washash trains Nos. 5 and 2 for over a quarter of a century. Last Sunday, when coming east on No. 2, he was taken sick soon after he left St. Louis and was in such a bad condition when the train reached Danville that he had to be taken off and taken to a hospital. He died soon after reaching the institution. Mr. Kirkpatrick is survived by a widow, but no children. Before taking service with the government as a mail clerk on the Washash road he resided in Lafayette.

READY TO WEIGH THE MAIL.

Work Begins at 12:01 Thursday Morning, February 18.

Weighing of the mails carried by the team roads will begin at 12:01 o'clock Thursday morning and will continue 105 days. All the work will be accomplished by men under the direction of the government postal department without assistance from the railroads except on the Pennsylvania, the Washash and the Grand Rapids and Indiana. A. C. Twining, chief clerk in the Pennsylvania trainmaster's office, will represent the Pennsylvania in weighing the mails at Fort Wayne and other places on the Western division. He has selected L. C. Rider a furloughed brakeman, to weigh the mails in the daytime and Fred H. Tate, a furloughed fireman, to weigh at night, while H. L. Traxler, a clerk at the east yards office, will assist Mr. Twining in the clerical work, which is a very important part of the business. A. E. Kraus will have charge of weighing the mails carried in and out of the city by the Washash, assisted by three men furnished by the government. They will operate at the Pennsylvania station, through which the mail to and from the Washash trains is carried. Weighing of the mails carried by the Nickel Plate, the New York Central and the Lake Erie and Western is to be handled exclusively by men in the employ of the government and will be performed on the trains. The personnel of the weighers could not be learned. Mr. Twining had charge of weighing the mails for the Pennsylvania and the Grand Rapids and Indiana four years ago. Then it was handed on the platform east of the Clinton street side of the old Pennsylvania passenger station.

HEAVY STEEL CARS

Add Much to the Cost of Operating a Railroad.

In writing about steel equipment and its relative cost with old time wooden cars, Paul Alwyn Platz says: "The wooden coach built in 1903 cost $10,000 and weighed 105,000 pounds. The steel coach of the same capacity which came later cost $17,050 and weighed 143,000 pounds, an increase of 57 per cent in cost and 32 per cent in weight. "Big improvements had to be made in roadway even before steel equipment could be regularly adopted. Prior to 1909, eight to twelve inches was the standard depth of ballast on the Pennsylvania. Since that time it has been necessary to make it eighteen inches. Whereas sixteen ties to a 33-foot rail were customary, now eighteen are used, making a difference of 320 ties to the mile. Also, the average price of ties used for repairs has increased from 78.5 cents to 84.5 cents. While the initial cost of improvement work is for the most part charged to capital, still the repair and renewal bill is increased on account of the more valuable investment, and this must be paid out of operating revenues.

"Railroad repair bills have gone up with appliances and devices of safety. In numerous ways down to the use of the screw-spike instead of the ordinary one, heavier tie plates and the like, the cost of maintaining a railroad has become increasingly expensive on account of the faster and heavier trains used in modern passenger service. There is, too, the more general use of Pullman service, in which a car weighing much more than the regular car, carries half as many people. The dead weight per passenger is more than double.

"How to maintain and develop the passenger service in accordance with present standards, on a declining ratio of income the railroad men are becoming a more serious problem each year.

STILL ONE VACANT CHAIR.

A fire which came mighty near destroying his home in Mahoningtown, Pa., prevented W. T. Weschler, division storekeeper at that point for the Pennsylvania, from attending the monthly meeting of the storekeepers in this city this week. The fire originated in the bath room of Mr. Weschler's house and had a good start when discovered. Instead of coming to the meeting he sent his assistant, R. R. Daniels. The serious illness of Mrs. Grubb, wife of Storekeeper F. C. Grubb, at Toledo, prevented the attendance of Mr. Grubb at the meeting a month ago. The patient has improved, however, to the point where she was able to leave the hospital and go to her home and her complete recovery is assured. Mr. Grubb is attending the storekeepers' meetings this week. Others taking part in the meetings are C. P. Cherry, Fort Wayne, who is presiding; Paul Zimmerman, Chicago; Charles Jackson, Allegheny; P. Shipley, Wellsburg; F. S. Schultz, Crestline; C. E. Blessing, Cleveland; Peter Zurbach, east car shop office; W. C. J. Auman and Henry Heine, stenographers and clerks, Fort Wayne.

FOUND BOX OF CLOTHING.

Captain Stoll, of the Pennsylvania police department, and his lieutenants and patrolmen are interested in the investigation of a theft of two boxes of clothing of the Hart, Schaffner & Marx make. Yesterday two lots of clothing were found near the Pennsylvania tracks. One was in a box pulled out of the Calumet river and the other was a pile of coats, pants and vests which had been in a box and an attempt made to destroy them by fire. The box was burned and the edges of the clothes burned, but the garments were not entirely consumed. It is not known from which railroad the freight came, but it was either the Pennsylvania or the New York Central for they are near each other at that point. The box taken from the river was marked to parties in Connecticut.

MANY TRESPASSERS KILLED

By statistics compiled by the Pennsylvania it is shown that during the eight years ending with 1914 there were 2,998 trespassers killed on the company's lines east of Pittsburgh. These unfortunates included people from all walks of life—students, lawyers, painters, salesmen, miners, soldiers, stationary engineers and shopmen. These deaths were charged to railroad accidents, yet the railroad has been a steady decrease in the number of accidents each of the succeeding years in the period covered by the statistics. In 1907 there were 572 killed, while in 1914 there were only 301 killed.

FELL IN HONEST HANDS.

While Machinist William Long and Boilermaker William Dennis were en route to the Pennsylvania shops, where they are employed, this morning, they discovered a pocketbook lying on the sidewalk on Baker street. Supposing it had been dropped by some one going to the Pennsylvania station, they started for that place and met the owner, who had missed the purse and started out to look for it. It contained a considerable sum of money, in addition to some valuable papers and a railroad ticket. The lady was profuse in her thanks for the return of the purse. She was going to Columbia City to visit friends.

NEW WABASH OFFICIAL.

Yesterday J. L. Harris became general live stock agent of the Washash, with headquarters in the Live Stock exchange in Kansas City. He will have charge of live stock and live poultry traffic and other duties will be assigned to him in connection with the handling of packing house products and other perishable freight. Mr. Harris comes from the Chicago & Alton. He was formerly connected with the Washash and the Missouri Pacific and is well known throughout the west and southwest.

RECEIVED ORDER FOR FORGINGS.

Foreman Joseph Slater, of the Bass blacksmith shop, booked an order for nine large shafts yesterday. There will be considerable work for the hammer-smiths on this order, as the shafts range in length from thirteen to twenty-three feet. Business has not been very heavy at the blacksmith department of the Bass works and the order for shafts yesterday was welcomed and taken as a harbinger of improved times.

BRAKEMEN REPORT FOR WORK.

J. H. Fitzgerald, the Nickel Plate brakeman, who was injured by falling from a caboose at Claypool February 1, and Brakeman O. J. Marks, who had been sick several days, resumed work on the road this morning, having recovered.

TO CHICAGO FOR A BRIDE.

Transportation was issued today to H. Perlman and wife from Chicago to Fort Wayne. Mr. Perlman is employed in the Pennsylvania machine shop and he will be married next Saturday at Chicago to a young lady from his home town in Russia and the couple will immediately come here to reside.

TRIAL POSTPONED.

THE MARKETS

CITY SCALE MASTER HAS VERY BUSY DAY

City Scalemaster B. W. Skelton experienced a very busy day Tuesday, weighing sixty-seven loads of grain and hay, among which were twenty-eight loads of corn, the largest number of loads of corn weighed in one day.

On account of the heavy receipts in the corn market the prices received ranged all the way from 70c to 85c a bushel, those people receiving the highest price who appeared on the markets first.

Three loads of oats made their appearance on the street Tuesday morning but no sooner had they come than they were gone as merchants quickly bought all they could and paid the high price of 59c a bushel for the grain. It is predicted that the oats market will go up for some time as the demand is becoming greater than the supply, which will naturally boost the price.

Contrary to the prediction of millers Monday afternoon that the price on wheat per bushel would go lower, the price took a jump of 3c upward, millers offering 1.15. The market remains very unsteady in the big centers and no prediction can be made as to how the prices will be Wednesday. No reduction has been made in flour prices.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Wheat prices jumped upward here today, influenced by a decided advance in Liverpool. Reports were at hand that the demand in Great Britain was of remarkable strength, and continued to exceed the supply. After opening 1/2c to 2c higher, prices ascended to a range 3c to 4 1/2c above last night's level.

Corn, although inclined to sag at the start, made a rally later in sympathy with wheat. The big stocks in sight, however, led to evident caution on the part of bulls. Opening quotations, which were unchanged to 1/4¢ lower, were followed by a moderate advance all around.

Traders in oats guided themselves by the action of corn. A different course seemed to depend wholly on developments in regard to export sales.

Provisions averaged a little higher as a result of an advance in the hog market. Shorts did most of the buying.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Feb. 16.—The only pronounced changes in the early stages of today's stock market were in the specialties, Pittsburgh coal preferred advancing three points, while Mexican Petroleum lost an additional two points. Leading issues were mostly lower, the Harrimans, Reading, New York Central, United States Steel and Amalgamated Copper receding fractionally. Important stocks showed more steadiness at the end of the half hour.

Speculative favorites made some improvement after their initial decline but the market showed an undercurrent of caution throughout the early session. Declines of a point or two were recorded by American Sugar, Central Leather and Loess-Wiles. Another severe decline in foreign exchange gave rise to renewed rumors regarding gold imports. Heavy buying of the new Pennsylvania 4 1/2 per cent. bonds advanced over yesterday's quotations was an offset to the otherwise lower bond market.

Selling of Copper affected the active group in the late dealings. The closing was heavy.

ing minor successes, resulting in the capture of men and munitions of war. In East Prussia the Russians have not yet regained their fortified lines and the German advance, while not checked, seems to British observers to be proceeding with less speed.

Paris reports from the western front that the sole activity consists in artillery engagements in which the guns of the allies have been successful in silencing batteries northeast of Ypres, and destroying German trenches at Beaumont.

In diplomatic circles the replies of Germany to notes from neutral powers concerning Germany's proposed marine zone are awaited with interest. Great Britain's reply concerning the use of neutral flags is given secondary importance. The German press is hinting that satisfactory assurance by Great Britain on the question of neutral flags would constitute the best safeguard to American shipping.

tify to any facts that would bear out the accusation.

After the reading of the letter, democratic Floor Leader Senator Van Nuys presented a motion calling for the desired information, which was adopted. The committee is empowered to subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance, employ counsel, examine witnesses under oath and report its findings to the senate. Its work shall be conducted at once.

No Dissenting Vote.

Six bills were passed by the senate, the only one of importance being the Fleming bill to abolish the office of state statistician, which to the surprise of almost all the senators passed without a dissenting vote. The office, if the bill becomes a law, will cease to exist after the term of the incumbent, and the duties will be transferred to the office of secretary of state. With the abolishing of the office there will be an annual saving to the state of $22,000.

The Neal bill regulating fraternal and benevolent insurance organizations by restricting the arbitrary increase of rates to old members passed the upper house by a vote of 32 to 5. The amendment offered to the bill and game law, by Representative Field, which provides a fine for the use of hooks of less than five-sixteenths of an inch on line, was concurred by the senate and advanced to the governor for his signature along with two other minor house bills.

But Three New Bills.

A roll call for the introduction of bills resulted in only three measures being offered in the senate, all of which were of more than ordinary interest. Senator Kattmann, of Terre Haute, introduced a bill drafted by the boiler department of the state bureau of inspection, which provides for the inspection and regulation of all boilers. Senator Reidelbach introduced a bill which would limit the number of grounds for absolute divorce in Indiana and would prevent non-residents of the state from securing a separation in any state court.

Impotency, adultery, total abandonment, extreme cruelty, habitual drunkenness, failure to provide, conviction for crime and incarceration in the state penitentiary are named as the causes for which a divorce shall be granted. The joint committee of the house and senate was appointed to investigate the advisability of restoring the old state capital at Corydon made its report to the senate this morning in which it recommends that $50,000 be appropriated for this purpose.

Urged on by the frequent statements of Speaker Redwell that all business pending could not be considered before the close of the session unless more speed was shown, the house today held its busiest session. After eighteen new measures had been introduced the house advanced twelve to the stage for passage and received reports of committees on forty-four other measures.

Woman's Suffrage Bill.

The woman's suffrage bill is similar to that enacted by the Illinois legislature at its last session. It would give women the right to vote for presidential electors, judges of the supreme court, chief of the bureau of state statistics, reporter of the supreme court, attorney general, state auditor, judges of criminal courts, superior courts, and the judges of probate courts.

IT'S A LONG, LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY

For Smashing Windows Pat O'Brien Will Spend 170 Days in Jail.

For several years the police, city court and prosecutor as well as the authorities at the county infirmary have been sorely puzzled what to do with Patrick O'Brien, a pauper, who, at the age of 72, is about the most incorrigible souse in this flourishing community of 80,000 souls. Pat has been admitted time and again to the poor house, but will not stay there. Every few weeks he jumps the reservation and comes down town to get drunk. Then he pursues the regular course of arrest, trial and either return to the infirmary or a term in jail. Some time ago the poor house refused to have him, and what to do with him became a problem. Mr. O'Brien solved the question for himself last Saturday when after being ejected from Jack Brown's saloon, 106 East Columbus street, he clubbed his heavy walking stick and beat out the plate glass front of the saloon, causing damage to the amount of $60. He pleaded guilty Tuesday morning to a charge of malicious trespass and was fined $60 and costs, to which was added a jail sentence of 100 days. This will hold Pat for 170 days and when he gets out the good old summer time will be about faded and gone.

Puts Stopper in Huffman Case.
After the trial of Ike Huffman, a Hayden street junker charged with receiving stolen goods, had proceeded to the point where George Weber, an 18-year-old lad now under bond to the circuit court for larceny, was ready to "come clean" on the witness stand, Otto E. Fuelber, Weber's attorney, put a stopper to the proceedings by making objection to the testimony of his client, and was sustained. Weber had confessed to half a dozen detectives for the city, the Pennsylvania railroad and the Fort Wayne traction company, the details of several robberies and of the sale of stolen brass to Huffman, but the state was unable to get this testimony before the court. Prosecutor Dulin then secured a continuance until February 26. Attorney Louis Plost, Huffman's counsel, objected strenuously to the continuance. Weber's companions in the stealing and sale of the brass were Frank Wojciechowski and Joseph Wene, each aged 15, and they were taken on Monday to the boys' school at Plainfield. They will be brought back to testify to what Weber's own case bars him from telling to save his own prejudice and incrimination.

Other City Court Cases.
The cases of Abe Frank, a Bloomingdale merchant, and Henry Busher, his cashier, on charges of petty larceny were continued to February 23 on request of Solly K. Frankenstein, their counsel. Complaint was made by Arthur Reed, 105 Romy avenue, that the accused had stolen nine chickens from him. The case involves a bill for straw delivered to Reed and alleged to be unpaid for. Reed sold some chickens to the Frank store and payment was refused until he settled the account claimed to be due. He replevined the poultry and later swore out warrants for larceny.

Pat Ryan, who was drunk and begging on the streets, was fined $5 and costs and went to jail.

LAD RUNS INTO AUTO

C. Aurentz, who was passing at the time. Officer Ernest Paul and Mr. Aurentz took the lad to Dr. M. F. Porter's office, where he was found to be uninjured save for a cut on the hand, which was dressed.

ENGLAND ADHERES TO PLAN TO BAR FOOD FROM GERMANY

READY TO FORMALLY PROCLAIM FOOD BAN

Great Britain Persists in Course Which Moved Germans to Declare a Naval War Zone.

London, Feb. 16 (4:40 p. m.).—The prohibition against foodstuffs designed for Germany will be formally proclaimed by Great Britain either tonight or tomorrow, according to present expectations, and the government's retaliatory measures against the threatened German submarine "blockade" will go into immediate effect.

WITH KEENEST INTEREST
Washington Awaits English Attitude Toward German Proposal.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Administration officials today awaited with the keenest interest an indication of Great Britain's attitude toward Germany's proposal, made through the United States, to drop her plan to destroy enemy merchant ships by a submarine and sea mine campaign in British waters, if Great Britain would permit food cargoes to pass un-

WILL DRAFT FLOOD PREVENTION BILL

For the purpose of drafting a bill to prevent future floods in the city of Fort Wayne a meeting of the legislative committee from the Fort Wayne Commercial club will meet Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock.

The proposed bill pertains to Fort Wayne and immediate vicinity and will be presented at the present session of the legislature by one of Allen county's representatives.

Takes Her Husband's Place on Platform

Mrs. Carter Harrison

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Mrs. Carter H. Harrison, wife of Mayor Harrison, today took her husband's place on the platform and addressed several meetings of workers, urging them to nominate her husband next Tuesday as the democratic candidate for mayor. Mayor Harrison, because of illness, was unable to fill a number of his engagements and Mrs. Harrison volunteered to take his place.

A series of speeches for afternoons and evenings throughout the last week of the primary campaign had been planned for Mrs. Harrison, who until now has addressed only women's organizations.

WOULD GIVE WOMAN VOTE

Suffrage Measure Goes to Lower House of the Legislature.

TAGGART DEMANDS AN INVESTIGATION

Senate Looks Into Charge That He Sought to Control Its Action.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 16.—Woman's suffrage was placed before the house today while in the senate an investigation of allegations made by an Indianapolis newspaper that Thomas Taggart, democratic national committeeman for Indiana, attempted to control the senate's action, was ordered.

Mr. Taggart sent a letter to the senate requesting an investigation and a committee including Senators Van Nuys, Democratic Floor Leader Neal and Van Anken, democrats and Gemmill and Lanz, republicans, was named by Lieut. Governor O'Neill to conduct the inquiry.

Representative Perry, of Camden, introduced the woman suffrage bill. It provides for franchise rights being given to women, who would qualify to vote the same as men do now, and who could vote only for the statutory officers elected by the people in this state.

Separate ballots, and separate ballot boxes would be provided for the convenience of the women at each voting precinct by the terms of the bill. The measure was referred to house committee on judiciary A.

The Jones-Blinear direct primary election measures which were introduced in the senate several days ago will be reported in the house and senate tomorrow morning, according to announcements made by the presiding officer today upon requests of the authors. The two houses are expected to hasten consideration of the primary question.

Occasioned Some Surprise.

The reading of Mr. Taggart's letter by the lieutenant governor occasioned much surprise among the members of the senate. Mr. Taggart opened his letter with reference to a recent editorial in an Indianapolis newspaper in which he was charged with having been responsible for the defeat of Senator Ballou's bill reducing the number of game wardens. He said he had sent a communication to that paper in which he declared the charge to be absolutely false. He requested that a special committee be appointed to investigate the charge, which he designated a "slander," and a "reflection alike on the senate and me," he declared that he would gladly testify under oath before this committee to the falsity of the charges and requested that the editor of the paper be brought before the committee to test-

ACQUITTAL FOR SIX EX-CITY OFFICIALS

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 16.—Six former officials of East St. Louis were acquitted by a jury today on charges involving the misappropriation of $100,000 in city funds.

The men acquitted were Charles S. Lambert, former mayor; John J. Faulkner, former comptroller; W. R. Rodenberger, former congressman; Fred R. Gold, former treasurer; Claus Tietje, former alderman; Lester Grigsby, former clerk health department, now chief of detectives.

The men were accused of having formed a conspiracy by which money was to be obtained from the city treasury by the payment, a second time, of bond coupons, and by bills for labor and supplies paid in the names of relatives or employees of the accused officials.

The acquittal of Lambert and Faulkner was asked by the prosecutor, who said there was no direct evidence against them.

GIRL HOBOS ARE CAPTURED

Trio of Tender Years Run Away from Home in Findlay, Ohio.

SEE PURSUER HERE AND FLEE ON FOOT

One Returns to City and Others Are Picked Up on Road Far North.

Tired, hungry, footsore, bedraggled with mud and out of money, three girl hoboes of tender years left Fort Wayne at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon over the C. H. & D. railroad in custody of Miss Anna Gadt, probation officer of the juvenile court in Findlay, Ohio, from their homes in which city the trio had run away last Sunday to seek their fortunes "out west."

The girls were Ester and Marie Horning, sisters, aged 15 and 13, respectively, and Margaret Brooker, aged 15. They were pursued to Fort Wayne by Officer Gadt who, with the aid of Fannie M. Winch, matron of the Fort Wayne police, and other police officers, and the forces of Sheriff A. C. Gladieux, finally gathered up the fugitives and took them back home.

See Officers and Flee.

The girls fled from Findlay Sunday, leaving by an interurban car to which they stuck until they reached the Nickel Plate railroad, coming here by that line. They took rooms at the home of Mrs. Palmer, 120 West Superior street. Miss Gadt arrived from Findlay Monday afternoon and sought Matron Winch. The two lady officers faced forth in quest of the runaways. The three young travelers were abroad in the city to behold what might interest the onlooker in Vienna and they saw the officers and recognized Miss Gadt. They did not stand long upon the order of going, but went at once. Scouring from sight of the lady sleuths, they hurried to their rooming house, got their belongings and fled forth afoot to the north. They walked to Huntertown and there Marie, the youngest, overcome by the hardships of the long tramp through the mud, began to long for home and mother. The three spent the night in the railway station in Huntertown and Tuesday morning the two older girls gave her what little money remained of the common fund, put her on an interurban car and sent her back to Fort Wayne and told her to take the Nickel Plate for home.

All Are Captured.

Marie was found Tuesday forenoon in the Nickel Plate station by Patrolman Ernest Matron, who turned her over to Matron Winch. Marie told Matron

SOME FLASHES FROM DR. LYON'S SERMONS

Some doctors look upon the human body as a big piece of meat.

You ought to know everything about something and something about everything.

Merely to know books is nothing in itself. You must know God.

We don't take time for the things worth while.

I believe God is calling men to make money for His cause.

You may accumulate all the money in Indiana, but if you must pay for it with your soul you have struck a bad bargain.

If you are really saved every dollar you have secured dishonestly you must pay back or you are going to hell.

If there is anything in your business that is not on the square, for God's sake give it up.

Seek first the kingdom of God for if you do not seek it first the chances are you won't seek it at all.

Do you think God would have you seek for something you cannot get?

Between 800 and 900 employees of the S. F. Bowser plant attended the evangelistic service held on Mr. Bowser's time Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 2 o'clock. The men were privileged to ring out at 11:45 o'clock Tuesday morning and attend the special service on full pay.

A platform was erected in one of the big rooms and seats provided for the employees and all others who wished to attend. Dr. Milford H. Lyon spoke for nearly an hour, no restriction being placed on his time if he had not finished by 2 o'clock. Special music was furnished by Loren G. Jones with Mrs. Jones at the piano.

Mr. Bowser also spoke briefly to his men. He said the object of the meeting was to bring the church to those who have not been privileged to attend and to promote the Christian spirit throughout the plant. He praised the Catholic priest and the Lutheran minister who had recommended Dr. Lyon to their members, declaring he was here for a good purpose and doubtless much good would be accomplished.

Mrs. Barr Speaks.

Mrs. Daisy Barr spoke to a good-sized audience at the tabernacle Tuesday afternoon. A meeting of the Personal Workers' League was held at the noon hour at the First Presbyterian church at which time dinner was served. Shop meetings were held at 12:30 o'clock at the Van Arman factory, the Pennsylvania shops and the Bass foundry.

The business men of the city will attend the service Tuesday evening in a body, meeting at the court house at 7:15 o'clock. Other delegations are the members of the G. A. R., postoffice employees and Pythian Sisters.

Forty-two Take Stand.

Forty-two more took the stand for Christ at the tabernacle Monday evening, making a total up to date of 3,979. It was a splendid meeting, a good sized crowd for Monday night and a wonderful crowd for Tuesday night and a wonderful sermon, although Dr. Lyon said he did not intend to preach, but just talk. As a matter of fact, it was one of the most scholarly addresses he has delivered during the campaign.

Fort Wayne is thoroughly aroused religiously and as one minister expressed it, "the devil is certainly on the run." Although the meetings have been in progress for more than six weeks there has been no flagging of interest. Among a great many there is really a feeling of deep regret that the meetings are to close. Even the most ardent Christian has received an inspiration and church members have been aroused to their duty. The effect of the meetings will be felt in Fort Wayne for months and months after they close.

First Things First.

Dr. Lyon spoke Monday evening on "First Things First," declaring that Christ must be first in every life. During the course of his sermon he said that every doctor must be a Christian, otherwise he is not fit to follow his profession. He was referring to the fact that should be taken of the human body.

"It is important we develop strong, healthy bodies," he said. "If you are weakening your bodies by overeating or over indulgence you are committing a crime against self and a sin against God. I have spoken more than 7,000 times during the last few years and have never missed a service. I have taken good care of my body and have

JUDGE ACCUSED BY GERMAN-AMERICANS

Washington, Feb. 16.—Charges by the German-American alliance and the German Historical society, of Toledo, that Federal Judge McKillits delivered an unneutral speech recently, declaring he "did not care how soon some one dropped a thousand bombs on Emperor William's head," were referred today by President Wilson to the department of justice.

Officials pointed out, however, that neither the president nor the department has authority to censure a federal judge; that power is reserved to congress.

BUFFALO YARDS TO CLOSE.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 16.—The stock yards at East Buffalo will close this afternoon under state and federal orders because of the reappearance of foot and mouth disease and there appears to be some uncertainty as to when they will reopen.

LAST MINUTE NEWS

ITALY MUST JOIN WAR TO AVOID REVOLUTION.

London, Feb. 16.—(4:30 p. m.)—The prophesy that Italy would mobilize her army within a fortnight was made here today by Riciotti Garibaldi, the Italian patriot. He said that unless the Italian government decided to participate in the war there would be a revolution.

GERARD REPORTS ON INFORMAL CONFERENCE.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Ambassador Gerard at Berlin today reported on his informal conference with the German chancellor, Dr. von Bethman-Holweg and other high German officials since the delivery of the American note warning Germany against submarine attacks on American vessels. The ambassador made no mention of any conference with Emperor William and was unable to determine the trend of German official opinion. Throughout the conferences, however, the ambassador reported he observed a friendly feeling on the part of officials in contrast to the rather antagonistic utterances of the German press.

FRENCH PRESS SEES OTHERS IN IT SOON

Paris, Feb. 16.—America's reply to Germany's blockade notification has brought forth a chorus of praise from the principal writers in the French press. Even Georges Clemenceau, who hitherto has been disposed to criticize President Wilson, says the president has spoken the words the American people expected in such a way that Germany has no alternative but to back down.

Gabriel Hanotaux says in the Figaro: "The American note to Germany is an act of high historic initiative and the first step in the inevitable participation of neutrals in the great events which are dividing the world. President Wilson was obliged to pass from discussion to action. What do the measures mentioned in the note mean but that American warships will fall upon German submarines attacking American ships in total disregard of America's sovereign rights? Either Germany can give in or she can disregard Washington's note and go on with her plan to force England to capitulate. Then President Wilson would not recede from his position."

The proposal made by Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador to the United States, that Germany would withdraw its blockade order if the import of food was permitted by England, arrived too late for comment, but the newspapers caption the incident "Official German Blackmail."

SAYS ALL ARE IN DANGER.

Von Bethman-Holweg Puts New Emphasis on German Contention.

Rotterdam, via London, Feb. 16.—The chamber of commerce here has received a communication from the German consul producing a note from Chancellor von Bethman-Holweg in which he says: "In most cases German submarines will be unable to distinguish between neutral and British vessels, when encountered in the war zone. All merchantmen therefore run the risk of destruction. In order to avoid losses it is urgently necessary for neutral ships to keep away from the war zone. Germany can no longer regard the British merchant fleet as unarmed or entitled to warning before attack because merchantmen are equipped with guns and a large reward has been offered to the first merchant vessel which sinks a German submarine."

"Germany will pursue the war in the manner announced until Great Britain acknowledges the rules of naval warfare as fixed by the Paris and London declarations or until the neutral powers force this acknowledgment from England."

LAW MAY SOON GET CLUTCHES ON JACK

Negro Pugilist Will Be Extradited on Charge of Conspiracy.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist who fled to Europe after being sentenced to a year in the federal penitentiary for violation of the Mann act, will be extradited and returned to Chicago on a charge of conspiracy, according to a statement today by Charles F. Cline, United States district attorney.

The recent supreme court decision in a white slave case, holding that a conspiracy may be entered into to violate the act, was cited by Mr. Cline.

"The offense for which Mr. Johnson was tried, District Attorney Cline said, is not extraditable, but a conspiracy to violate the United States laws is, if the pugilist is not returned through any of our various plans, either before or after the boxing match at Juarez, Mexico, he will be indicted for conspiracy, arrested at whatever he may be, and brought back."

AMBASSADOR GERARD COUNSELS CALMNESS

Berlin, Feb. 16.—The Lokal Anzeiger today publishes an interview with James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany, which reads as follows:

"I regard the relations today between our two countries calmly and with confidence, and I believe pending questions will be solved in a manner mutually satisfactory. The men at the head of the governments in Berlin and Washington are not permitting themselves to be influenced either by the press or by public criticism. The public in the United States as well as in Germany should await developments quietly."

An official statement reading as follows, was issued in Berlin today: "Inasmuch as it is to the interest of Great Britain that conflicts arise between Germany and neutral countries, it is thought in German circles that the English submarines, in order to bring about this end, may purposely sink one or more neutral ships. It is known also in the shipping circles that Great Britain has laid large quantities of mines against German submarines."

KING REX'S REIGN ENDS.

New Orleans Observes Mardi Gras Day as Carnival Closes.

New Orleans, Feb. 16.—Mardi Gras day, marking the end of the reign of King Rex, was observed here today with elaborate festivities. Business places, including the cotton exchange, all banks and the post office, remained closed the greater part of the day.

Traffic on several blocks of Canal street was tied up and the space given over to merry-makers in fancy costumes. The Mardi Gras celebration will end tonight.

4 AMERICAN SHIPS NEARING WAR ZONE

Will Reach Dangerous Territory as German Order Goes in Effect.

New York, Feb. 16.—Of the steamships clearing from New York within the past two weeks maritime records show today that twenty-seven are due to be within the war zone declared by Germany around Great Britain after February 18, the day set to establish the zone. Four ships of this fleet are American owned and fly the American flag, and five of the steamers carry passengers.

The four American ships are Suruga, which sailed for Gothenburg, February 4; the Cushing, which sailed for Copenhagen, February 6; the Kansas, which sailed for London on the 8th, and the Philadelphia, of the American line, a passenger carrying ship, which sailed last Saturday for Liverpool.

The four other vessels carrying passengers are the Adriatic, British, of the White Star line, which should reach Liverpool late on the 18th or on the morning of the 19th; the Norwegian steamer Bergensfjord, bound for Bergen; the Cuauatar Orduna, British, due at Liverpool about February 25, and the French liner Niagara, which sailed Sunday for Havre.

All the vessels were heavily laden with freight. The Philadelphia carried 250 passengers, the Adriatic 400 and the other three liners had fewer passengers aboard.

TURKEY IS EXPECTED TO MOLLIFY GREECE

Rome, Monday, Feb. 15.—Private dispatches received here from Athens say the impression prevails there that Turkey will satisfy the demands made upon her by Greece following the alleged insult to an attack of the Greek legation at Constantinople. It is argued that Turkey cannot afford at the present time to add Greece to the number of her enemies, particularly in view of the fact that she knows Greece is ready to enter at once upon a campaign to redeem the lands inhabited by Greece still under Turkish control.

A dispatch received in London yesterday from Athens said the Greek minister at Constantinople had left the Turkish capital, leaving his secretary of legation in charge, because of the insult offered a Greek attaché. The porte had promised satisfaction but was slow in carrying out its agreement.

Good Housewives Make This Cough Syrup.

To quickly cure the most stubborn cough and break up a cold in six to eight hours, there can be nothing better than the following simple remedy, for it has been tried in thousands of cases with wonderful success. Its popularity is increasing because of its cheapness and positive curative virtues.

Obtain of druggist a 2½ oz. package of Essence Mentha-Lavender; empty into a pint bottle. Then make a syrup by pouring a half pint of boiling water over a pint of granulated sugar. Stir, cool and fill up the bottle with syrup. Full directions for use are enclosed in the package. This home-made syrup effects a saving too, of from two to three dollars as compared with labeled cough medicines.

EVANGELIST SPEAKS TO BOWSER EMPLOYEES

depended on God for healing. I would not have you think that I would do away with godly doctors, but some doctors look upon the human body as a big piece of meat and cut into it like they were cutting off pork chops. A doctor ought to be converted. A doctor has no more right to touch the holy temple without faith than a teacher has to stand before a class of pupils without being converted."

Should Read Good Books.

Dr. Lyon advocated the reading of good books. If a young man has to choose between books and a suit of clothes, take the books, for by so doing eventually he will be able to have both books and clothes.

"No matter how old, you should be a student," he urged. "Spend some time outside of your regular work; spend some time on the word of God; not only spiritually but intellectually." At this point he dwelt for some little time upon the wonders of the Bible and its wonderful teachings.

"You ought to know everything about something and something about everything," he declared.

But happiness cannot simply be found in book learning, the central thought throughout the entire discourse being that real happiness could only be had through the love of Jesus Christ.

"The mere accumulation of facts is not education," he continued. "Knowledge is knowing things and wisdom is knowing how, where and when to use that knowledge."

"The speaker deplored the general inability of people of today to carry on a sensible conversation."

Not as Sociable.

"People are not as sociable as they used to be," he said. "Very few can carry on a conversation on any subject that is worth while." He attributed this condition to the fact that people do not take the time for the things worth while.

"It is a great thing to be a good mixer, to be pleasant, genial and bold up to the end of the conversation," he continued. "We don't take the time for the things worth while." He told how people rush to the telephones today and say, hello, how are you, that's all, good-by—and run on with their work.

He urged the people to take some time for recreation and enjoyment, but to take the kind that will leave a good taste. He would not have a man spend his life merely in pleasure, however. He told of an old man eating at a hotel who was putting away everything before him.

"It is the only pleasure I get in life," the elderly gentleman exclaimed. Dr. Lyon called him a big hog.

The evangelist said that the great trouble in the colleges and universities of the country today is that the students think more of athletics and the social life than they do of their studies, their studies being of secondary consideration with them.

Speaks of the Financial.

Then the speaker spoke of the financial, declaring it to be harder for a rich man to be a Christian than a poor man. "I believe God is calling men to make money for his cause," he said. "You may get all the money in Indiana and if you must pay for it with your soul you have struck a bad bargain."

"If you are really saved every dollar you have secured dishonestly must be paid back or you are going to hell," he exclaimed. "If there is anything in your business that is not on the square for God's sake give it up. You may be a financial prince, but in God's sight you may be a spiritual pauper."

The most important thing of all is the spiritual life. "The things of the world grow less and less, but the glory of Christian life is that it grows richer and richer and better and better throughout all the ages," he declared.

"Seek first the kingdom of God, for if you do not seek it first the chances are you won't seek it at all."

At this point the evangelist asked all who had commenced the Christian life before they were sixteen years old to raise their hands. Then he asked how many had commenced the Christian life

A meeting of the offering committee was held at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning at the First Presbyterian church. At the request of Dr. Lyon, who has asked the churches not to attend the services in a body during the final week, the members of the Olivet street Baptist church will not attend in a body Wednesday evening, as announced.

Ministers to Meet.

It was decided at a short meeting of the city Ministerial association held Monday morning at the First Presbyterian church at the close of the meeting of the committee on Dr. Lyon's offering that a special meeting of the Ministerial association would be held February 22 at the First Presbyterian church at 9:30. At this meeting all the acceptance cards which have been signed and upon which no choice has been indicated of the church will be taken up and passed upon by the entire Ministerial association.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

1 Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure disease.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded; but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethesda.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

Votes for Indiana Women.

The Legislative Council of Indiana Women, which has thrown the full force of its influence and its effort behind the movement to secure at least partial suffrage for the women of Indiana professes itself much pleased at the manner in which the proposition has been received by members of the present legislature. The measure now prepared would invest some 700,000 women in this state with the right to cast their ballots for a portion of the elective offices, and it may be fairly assumed that once partial suffrage is granted, it will be very soon followed by complete investment of the women with the right of franchise.

In this connection it is interesting to note recent progress of the woman suffrage movement in other states. In New York a suffrage amendment has just been approved by the legislature and is now up to the voters for ratification.

January 26 the West Virginia senate voted to submit a suffrage amendment by a vote of 29 to 1. The house followed suit, and ratified the senate's action January 28, by a vote of 16 to 8.

On January 27 the committee on constitutional amendments of the Texas house reported favorably a suffrage amendment by a vote of 16 to 2.

On January 28 the Tennessee senate voted to submit a suffrage amendment 26 to 3. The next day the house likewise approved the amendment 74 to 14.

On February 2 the Arkansas legislature voted to submit a suffrage amendment. A unanimous vote was given in the New Jersey house on February 1 for suffrage, and on February 9 such an amendment was approved in Pennsylvania.

Suffrage measures have also been introduced this year in New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont and Missouri.

Both the antis and the doubting brethren might as well make up their minds that woman suffrage is coming and prepare to accept the edict gracefully and cheerfully.

Germany's very prompt declaration that she is willing to reconsider her war zone restrictions if Great Britain ceases her efforts to starve out the Germans by preventing foodstuffs reaching the civilian population of the German empire will in the eyes of the civilized world place the German side of the present controversy in much better light. It places upon the shoulders of Great Britain a responsibility that even with all her belligerency we do not believe she will care to assume, and despite the defiant attitude of the two foes we believe an agreement will be reached whereby each will in the interest of common humanity recede from a position that magnifies horror without bringing compensating benefits.

Before we smile at Canada's panic of fear over the appearance of paper fireworks balloons which she mistook for hostile aeroplanes, let us recall the agonizing days and the sleepless nights endured by Boston during the Spanish-American war in deadly fear of Cervera's fleet when as a matter of fact that Spanish armada never got within thousands of miles of Boston. Boston was hearing things and Canada is seeing them. The indicated necessity in each case appears to be something to settle the nerves.

The United States senate, having been unable to break the deadlock and get anywhere with the administration's ship purchase measure, has now voted for an investigation of all charges of influence at work for and against the bill. In view of the prevailing fashion these days, an investigation was about the most natural thing to expect along about this stage of the legislative fight.

Indianapolis may extend an invitation to Billy Sunday to conduct an evangelistic campaign in that city, and if one-half the things we've heard about Indianapolis are true, she needs him badly.

ANOTHER PERSONAL ENVOY

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

Announcement of the departure of another personal representative of the president to investigate conditions in Mexico recalls the unproductive missions of his many predecessors. In fact there promises to be as many personal envoys to Mexico as there are presidents of that distracted country.

Duval West, the newest selection, was district attorney at San Antonio and has lived several years in Mexico. He intends to call in turn on Carranza, Villa, Zapata and such other leaders as may spring to the front during his stay below the Rio Grande. He is understood to be commissioned to remind them all of the desirability of respecting the lives and property of foreign residents and interests. This has been the function of most of his predecessors but perhaps constant reiteration may yet get the Mexican leaders to listen to it.

As to Mr. West being able to bring about any understanding or peace between the rival generals, provisional presidents and others, it is too much to be expected. Nevertheless, in view of Mr. Wilson's recent remark about the difficulty of getting the truth about Mexico, perhaps in a multitude of personal representatives he may be able to strike an average that may give him an approximation to the actual conditions there.

THE PLUMBER JOKE.

(Toledo Blade.)

An official of the Ohio Master Plumbers' association is calling upon the fraternity to rise in its might and strike down the plumber joke. He is so serious about it that it is possible he is giving the derelict old thing a new lease of life, when, had he let it alone, it might have perished from inanition.

The plumber is an absolute necessity in modern life. Nobody would think of trying to get along without him. Most people realize this, though they are not inclined to show roses in his pathway. Instead they have given prominence to one of the eccentricities of the trade. The plumber does go back to the shop after a wrench and the people know it, and they have come to know it so well that they expect it as a matter of course, and reckon it as a part of the price that must be paid.

But why should the plumber be disturbed at the so-called joke? He should do the smiling himself. If it is a joke on the other fellow.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If feverish, bilious, constipated, give fruit laxative at once.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, and get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Curb on Debate as House Takes Up Ship Bill Fight

Washington, Feb. 16.—President Wilson's fight for his ship bill was launched in the house today with a special rule limiting debate to six hours. Democratic leaders were sure that holding their large majority firm they would have a new measure bearing the approval of the administration and probably attractive to some republicans ready for the senate before the end of today's session.

The fight in the senate over the ship purchase bill today awaited the action of the house on the amended shipping measure where the way for its passage during the day had been paved by a party caucus. In the meantime administration senators continued their efforts when the senate met today to force a cloture rule to end the republican filibuster.

The president conferred with Senators Kern and Stone, and afterward

A Straight Talk By Herb Lax-a-Tone Man About Indigestion

In talking with the Herbal Lax-a-Tone man at the Drier Drug Co., 628 Calhoun street, he said: That in his opinion, that most of the ills that flesh was heir to were caused by troubles in the alimentary tract, including the liver, stomach and intestines and the urinary tract, including the kidneys and bladder, and these two dominate the health of the entire body.

In this stage of living, with quick and hasty meals and city conditions, have made us a nation of dyspeptics, which in turn has disarranged our entire digestive tract, and the majority of people that are thin and pale looking, are simply suffering from a lack of healthy and normal digestion.

If you have a faulty digestion, do not seem to assimilate your food, are losing weight, have sour risings in your throat, with shortness of breath, are bothered with constipation, your liver is sluggish and you feel as tired out when you get up in the morning as when you went to bed at night, a few doses of Herbal Lax-a-Tone will correct all this trouble and you will feel like a new person.

Herbal Lax-a-Tone is a purely herbal remedy and is sold on its merits. If it fails to do you good we will give you back your money, as we want you to be satisfied.

The Herbal Lax-a-Tone man is at Drier Drug Co., 526 Calhoun street, where he is introducing this remedy. Mail orders solicited.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the uric acid so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Adv.

FORT WAYNE BILLS PASSED BY HOUSE

But Zearing Bill for a Half
Holiday for Officials
Meets Defeat.

Indianapolis, Feb. 16.—The Indiana house yesterday afternoon passed three measures amending different provisions of the municipal corporations code, which were introduced by Representatives Kinder and Wyss, of Fort Wayne. The Wyss measure would make it possible for a property owner, after waiving payment of a public improvement assessment, to later pay it off by payment of the outstanding principal and accrued interest. One of the Kinder measures provides for remonstrators to improvements proposed in second-class cities filing their remonstrance in writing and also giving persons benefited by an improvement ten years in which to pay the amount of the benefit. The other would provide for payment of certain assessments on public improvements along with regular taxes.

The afternoon session of the house resulted in the passage of eight bills, in the killing of two others, including the Drago chiropractic measure and the Van Horn bill to enable cities of the third, fourth and fifth classes to fix tax levies of from two to five cents on the $100 assessed valuation for charitable purposes. The Enry measure, which provides for public service commission of the state ordering interchange freight switches to be erected between steam and electric railways, again failed of passage. It received 40 votes for to 44 against, lacking five votes having a constitutional majority.

The Cleary bill, which provides for the prosecuting attorney appearing in insanity proceedings in the justices of the peace courts of his county for the defendant, passed by a vote of 80 to 4. The author said the bill is designed to prevent the "railroading" of persons to insane hospitals. Representative Durham, of Greensburg, said the bill appeared to him to be a "prosecutor's fee bill."

The township trustees of the state will be benefited if the Deniston measure, which passed the house, becomes a law. It provides for the trustees' bond being equal to the largest amount of money that would come into his hands at any one time, and would result in a large reduction in the amount of bond required of most officers.

Persons guilty of tampering with any safety device on a common carrier, or with the signal service of a railway company, could be fined, upon conviction, from $30 to $500 to which a jail sentence of from thirty days to six months might be added, by the provisions of the bill of Representative Waltz, of Evansville, which passed 80 to 1.

The bill of Senator Clarke, proposing an amendment to the housing law to enable local health officers to condemn dwellings which are unfit for human habitation in their opinion, after a short discussion in the lower house was made a special order of business for next Wednesday afternoon.

Senator Zearing's bill to make Saturday afternoon a legal holiday for state, county and township offices in the cities of Indianapolis, Fort Wayne and Evansville was defeated by a vote of 24 to 20.

WINTER DOUBLES WORK.

In summer the work of eliminating poisons and acids from the blood is helped by perspiration. In cold weather, with little outdoor work or exercise to cause sweating, the kidneys have to do double work. Foley's Kidney Pills help overworked, weak and diseased kidneys to filter and cast out of the blood the waste matter that causes pains in sides or back, rheumatism, lumbago, stiffness of joints, sore muscles and other ills resulting from improper elimination.—Dreier Drug Company.—Adv.

City Is Divided Into Seventy-Seven for Sanitary Inspection.

Under direction of Dr. J. H. Gilpin, secretary and executive officer of the board of health, the city has been divided into seventy-seven sanitary districts and a colored map has been prepared showing the boundaries of each of them. This division into districts is done to facilitate inspection and the keeping of records. An inspector will go over each district, inspect alleys, backyards, vaults, stables, chicken houses and examine and report on all conditions that relate in any way to public health. These inspections will begin as soon as settled weather makes the work wholly practicable and will be continued constantly. The records in the health office will show at all times when a district was inspected and by whom. By this system it will be possible at any time to locate responsibility for failure to make thorough inspection. Another result will be the prosecution of persons who permit about their premises any conditions that are in violation of the laws and ordinances. One of the city inspectors will be detailed solely to have charge of contagious disease and quarantine and the others will be kept at work on the sanitary inspections.

"Before I tried Calumet I was under the impression, as so many are, that good, reliable Baking Powders can be had only at exorbitant prices. But, after the first trial—when my first Calumet Baking came from the oven, I felt confident that no baking powder at any price could produce more gratifying results. The confidence, prompted by that first test, grows stronger the longer I use Calumet, for no other brand ever enabled me to produce such tender, finely grained velvety cakes. No other brand—ever proved so uniform in strength—so absolutely dependable, so economical. So great is the satisfaction I derive from the use of Calumet, that I take pleasure in recommending it to others."

One More Reason Why You Should Use

—and it is the best possible argument in favor of the use of—
CALUMET BAKING POWDER

A Calumet indorsement from Mrs. J. A. Schumacher, Fort Wayne's leading cateress. A woman known throughout Indiana and many Eastern states for her famously delicious cakes. A woman whose interest in Baking Powder goes below the pride of culinary skill, for she makes a business of baking.

To make that business pay—to make it an all round success (and it is a tremendous success) not only must the very best bakings be produced—bakings which create a demand for more of their kind—but uncertainty, waste of time, waste of ingredients and the cost of production must be kept at a minimum.

All of these things—better bakings, certain results, lower baking costs—are realized says Mrs. Schumacher through the use of Calumet Baking Powder.

Order a can on trial. Use enough for one baking. See the results. If you are not delighted, purchase price will be refunded. Use the baking powder that has helped win greater fame for scores of famous pastry bakers. Today.

Mrs. Charles B. Fitch gave a beautiful reception this afternoon at her home in Webster street in honor of her guests, Mrs. J. P. Stahl and Mrs. H. H. Macomber, of Kendallville, and Mrs. Dallas F. Greene, who is to leave soon for Cuba to live. A number of ladies unbonneted lent assistance in meeting the callers, in ushering them to the diningroom and otherwise extending the hospitality of the hostess, while lovely spring flowers and very effective decorations added their quota of charm to the reception that continued from 3 to 6 o'clock. The diningroom was presided over by Mrs. Edward White, Mrs. Amy R. Seavey, Mrs. W. K. Noble and Mrs. Eric Crull and they were assisted by Misses Ruth Gumpfer, Vera Tresselt and Marie Landenberger. The refreshment table was arranged with a fountain-like grouping of jonquils, frezias and pink rosebuds. Tiny toy birds perched on the edge of the round and low vase from which the tall stems of flowers rose, and single rose vases of pink buds formed a circle about the centerpiece. Mrs. Bradley had charge of the decorations. The refreshments were yellow in tone and very refreshing. In the livingroom two tall white wicker baskets were filled with tinted roses and boxwood, pink, silver and green, while vases of spring flowers were a decorative feature of the reception room and hall that was very pleasing. The handsome gowns worn by the ladies of the receiving party lent a further air of elegance to the occasion. Other ladies who assisted were Mrs. James J. G. Thiene, John C. Heller, W. E. Davis and Miss Gertrude Green and Miss Vesey.

Mrs. C. J. Lamont gave the second of her series of bridge parties this afternoon at her West Main street residence and entertained between thirty and forty ladies. The appointments were suggestive of Valentine day and the predominating color was red.

The closing social affair of the many in honor of a number of ladies who visited in the city last week, was a luncheon party on Saturday, followed by an informal supper at the English tea room for which Mrs. H. O. Bruggeman was the hostess and her sister, Mrs. Stephen Trentman, of Chicago, was the particularly honored guest, and Mrs. Frank Remy, of Anderson; Mrs. Mark Honeywell, of Wabash; Mrs. Elmer Apperson and Miss Clancy, of Chicago, and Mrs. Jack Harding, of Indianapolis, other visitors to whom the compliment was extended. The table at the tea room was unusually beautiful with a decoration of Richmond roses and violets. Three white straw hats of a new shape were trimmed with Richmond rose color ribbon and clusters of real violets and the hats were filled with roses, while two large clusters of violets lay on the table between the hats of roses. The violets were placed in new bisque vases and the favors, one at each plate, were of little bisque ornaments like cupid, with a few violets in the arms of the tiny figures. The entire arrangement was new and beautiful and was done by the Misses Pick. Covers at the supper were laid for twenty-six, the guests including hostesses and visitors as well as the ladies who had entertained for them.

Mrs. Wm. H. Noll arranged a beautiful party at the Anthony hotel for yesterday afternoon, making all her arrangements in the morning in order that some of her friends might meet her guest, Mrs. Jack Harding, of Indianapolis, and the following visitors, Mrs. Stephen Trentman, Mrs. Louis Frankel, of Chicago; Mrs. Edwin Alfreo, of Williamette, Ill., and Mrs. Guy Scott's guest, Mrs. Lloyd T. Seyfried, of Toledo, Ohio. The favors were beautiful bouquets of yellow or pink roses with lace bows and were presented to the visiting guests. There were between thirty and forty ladies entertained by Mrs. Noll and the amusement.

Miss Julia Rippe, of 1345 Taylor street, has gone to Chicago for a few days.

Mrs. E. M. Sauer, of Bellevue, Ohio, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. West, of Lake Avenue.

Mrs. Fred Greck, of Packard avenue, is entertaining her sister, Mrs. M. E. White, of Racine, Wis.

Mrs. William Klett, of Washington boulevard west, hostess for the bridge club to which she belongs this afternoon.

Miss Laura Holbrook, of Warsaw, and Miss Elsie Weyburn, of Nappanee, who have been visiting Mrs. W. E. Hannan, have returned to their respective homes.

The Congenial Macabees club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Schell, 1015 Harrison street, on Wednesday afternoon. The assisting hostess will be Mrs. Mary Smith and Miss Schell.

A most agreeable surprise was given in honor of Miss Bernadette Mohl, of 1922 East Wayne street, at her home last evening and enjoyed by the following young people, Josephine Ertle, Mary Penbrooke, Agnes Brown, Laurena Brown, Sadie Marsh, Ella Fawcett and Ethel Meyer, Frieda Niemeyer, Evelyn Lewis, Evelyn Gronau, Bertha Helmske, Marie Lasher, Edna Toenges, Gertrude Hemsuth, Wanda Franke, Alma Kruckenberg, Luella Schewin, Clara Soest, Marie Jahn, Eva Hilsenmeyer and Lorraine Stegner.

The ladies of Ben Hur court, No. 15, will meet for a social time in their hall tomorrow afternoon and announce there will be no dancing.

A pretty valentine party was given by Miss Martha Linneman, of 1612 Andrew street. There was a make-believe postoffice and a post girl, who was just as good about delivering or receiving valentines as the real ones, and the children had a merry time over it. In fact, they had a merry time all the afternoon and a good supper was a part of it. The guests were Martha Schenkel and Elizabeth Michel, who won the prizes; Irene Negitz, Lucile Kretts, Helen Wagner, Irene Ganser, Helen Staff, Adeline Hays, Genevieve Miller, Anna Kelly, Velma Mensing and Marie Schenkel.

Miss Florence and Miss Marie Croninger, of 914 East Lewis street, entertained a party of girls who were dressed in fancy costumes last evening. Green and white, club colors, were used to decorate, and music and games were the entertainment. A chicken supper contributed to the good time. Misses Lola Baker and Viola Buffink won the prizes. There were also present Misses Myrtle Ireland, Marie Croninger, Mary Peters, Florence Croninger, Augusta Ireland, Ada Bowers, Laura Ramey, Cora Bowers, Lucile Ramey, Marie Stults, Cora Miller, Lucy Grey, Elmer White, Helen Marks, Rose Miller, Martha Herman, Sadie White, Ruth Herman.

One of the prettiest of parties was the valentine affair given by Miss Evelyn Hartman at her home in East Wayne street last evening. The house was beautifully decorated in cupids and hearts, red and white colors being carried throughout. Prizes in games were won by Julia Wobker, Evelyn Votrol, Lawrence Goetz and Gerhard Heber. The guests were: Cecilia App, Helen Stahl, Bertha Kocks, Julia Hoenker, Adeline Hoenker, Evelyn Votrol, George App, Lawrence Parrot, Gerhard Heber, Lawrence Goetz, Henry Waldman, Leo Heber, Joe Thousaint, Miss Hilda Langhals and Frances Hartman assisted the hostess in entertaining.

The meeting tomorrow at the Y. W. C. A. in celebration of Child Welfare day is attracting much attention. In addition to an address by Rev. Frank Wickes, of Indianapolis, Miss Calmar, primary supervisor in the schools, will have a number of children from the schools give examples of good reading. Mrs. E. T. Wood and her two daughters will render music with piano and violin. In the evening another meeting will be held at the high school and Prof. Ward will talk; also Mr. Levor, principal of the Nebraska school. There will be music and physical culture exercises. AT THE MAJESTIC.

Seat Sale Tomorrow for "Hanky Panky."

Virginia Evans, the prima donna of "Hanky Panky," was singing at a big benefit concert on Sunday night in the huge Hippodrome, New York, a short time ago. There was a great many people on the bill and considerable difficulty was experienced in finding suitable dressing rooms for them, as all of the regular company were using their rooms. Miss Evans was escorted to a cozy, charming room hung with damask portieres. She was calmly and leisurely making up when she heard a road that shook the Hippodrome and started her out of her wits. Timidly tiptoeing to the portieres she drew them aside and found Sadie, the elephant, being made up for her turn. Sadie was objecting to a too vigorous application of white paint to her tusks and toes. Miss Evans invited Sadie to go on and sing her song for her, but Sadie politely declined. She turned the courtesy, however, by carrying Miss Evans onto the stage on her trunk.

HERE IS A QUESTION NO SOUL ON EARTH AND NO ANGEL IN HEAVEN CAN ANSWER, SAYS EVANGELIST LYON.

THE UNANSWERABLE QUESTION.

I have a question that I cannot answer. It is a question no soul on this earth nor the angels in heaven could answer. It is found in the words of our text, Hebrews 2:3, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?" The world is past the point of disbelieving the deity of Christ, and the truth of God's word. A German rationalist lately gave as the fruit of his investigation for forty years of the Christian religion, not from the spiritual, but from the rational standpoint, that there was more evidence to substantiate the facts of the birth, the teachings, the works, the death, and the resurrection of Jesus Christ than of any other facts of human history. William B. Gladstone declared not long before his death that of the sixty great English statesmen with whom he had been acquainted during the fifty years of his public life, fifty-six had not only been Christian believers, but also active Christian workers.

The dean of the law school of Harvard university, some time since, gave to the senior class the four gospels as the best type of true evidence in all law or literature. "Here are four men," said he, "who are writing at different times, under different conditions, from different viewpoints, and each infringing on his statements his own personality. Upon some minor details there are some things which might seem discrepancies. It is in every particular there was complete agreement, we lawyers would conclude that there was collusion between the witnesses." He proceeded to illustrate this by saying that the gospel of Matthew speaks of Jesus as coming out from Jericho. Luke and Mark only mention one, and Mark says his name was Bartimeus. In other particulars he notices differences in detail. But, says he, "In regard to the main facts, there is absolute agreement." With such an array of witnesses as these, I would be presuming upon the intelligence of this audience to try to prove the truth of Scripture. It is not our business to substantiate the Scriptures. It is their mission to support and strengthen your faith and mine.

Then says some one, "If almost everyone believes in Christ and the Christian life, almost everyone will be saved." Oh, no, they will not. Why? On account of one great fact, which is the basis of my message tonight. It is the fact of neglect. "How shall we escape if you neglect such great salvation?"

What are the causes of this neglect? It is frequently due to thoughtlessness. There are many who never think seriously and soberly on any great subject. In the rush and hurry of these modern days, so many lives are distracted. They do not permit their minds to dwell upon any theme for any length of time. Solitude is the mother country of the strong.

This neglect is also due to Christ being crowded out of the life. People give place to everything else. They have time and thought for money-making, for pleasure, for society, for politics, but they have no time for Christ. The thousand and one things close at hand, clamoring for recognition, absorb the attention, deaden the conscience, and deafen the ears to the call of God. The thorn-crowned Christ is left standing outside the heart's door knocking for admission.

This neglect is also due to a lack of properly estimated values. Things are judged from the wrong viewpoint, from a false perspective. The thing that will bring momentary pleasure allures and absorbs the attention where matters of supreme importance are disregarded.

But no matter what may be the cause of neglect, its result is always disastrous. We see the consequences of neglect in other things. In agriculture, for example, a farmer does not have to sow weed seeds in order to fail to harvest. Let him neglect to plant at the proper time, to cultivate the growing crop, to harvest it when matured, and its loss is certain.

This same principle operates in physical health. Supposing an athlete neglects proper nourishment, exercise and sleep; he will become weak and diseased. He does not need to take poison to destroy his vitality.

We see the application of this same principle in education. A pupil would not have to destroy his text books in order to be ignorant. All that is necessary is to neglect study, and when examination time comes he will fail. Ancient mythology told of Minerva, the goddess of wisdom, springing full grown from the brain of Jupiter. But this is not true to nature and to life. The child comes into the world not educated, but ignorant. That is, by nature, it is intellectually lost, not saved. Education and salvation are both positive things, things which are plus, which are additional, things which we did not have before.

We see also the result of neglect in commercial life. Let a workman neglect to get up and get to his shop or office or factory on time. Let a merchant come down to his place of business at 10 or 11 o'clock and close up at 2 in the afternoon. Let him neglect to keep fresh, seasonable goods on the shelves, neglect to keep his accounts collected and his bills paid, and his failure will be certain. A man would not have to burn his stock of goods to be bankrupt. Benjamin Franklin spoke a great truth when he said, "Keep your shop and your shop will keep you." Our American humorist adds to that, "Nothing will run itself, except it is running down hill."

It is plain, then, that you do not need to antagonize Christianity to be lost. Indifference spells certain doom. To be saved means an earnest, positive effort, the acceptance of Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. What do you need to do to be lost? Nothing; remain as you are. I would not charge it upon any of you that you antagonize Christianity. There are those who are marshallled under the black flag of vice, but I do not believe for a moment that you are included in those ranks. Yet it is not necessary that you fight the gospel of Christ. Indifference is sufficient. Jesus says, "He that is not with me is against me." During a great war a critical battle was imminent and at roll call it was found that a soldier of one company was missing. A man was detailed to search for him. He found him in a flower garden, carelessly picking the flowers and pulling them to pieces, throwing them on the ground. Said the man, "What are you doing here?" Carelessly, he replied, "I am doing no harm."

"But man, a battle is approaching and the commander expects every man to be in his place." That man was arrested, court-martialed, convicted and shot, not because he was fighting in the ranks of the enemy, but because he was plainly failing to perform his duty.

There is a psychological, as well as a spiritual basis for this deadly result of neglect. All of us are very largely creatures of habit. Supposing a man decides to get up early in the morning. The night before he winds his alarm clock and sets it near the head of his bed. Just when it seems he is sleeping the soundest he hears a great rattle and clatter and he jumps almost to the ceiling. He opens his eyes, looks around, it is dark, he is sleepy and he says to himself, "I will take just a short nap, then I will get up." The next evening he winds the alarm again. At the same time the next morning the noise is repeated, but he does not jump as high. He goes back to sleep with less difficulty. Let him continue this process and at last he can set his alarm ever so near the head of his bed and he can sleep through it all as calmly as a babe upon its mother's breast. So long has God's alarm bell been sounding in some of your ears, and you have unheeded it until at last your sensibilities have become dulled and deadened. These notes of warning make no impression upon your mind.

It is the greatness of this salvation that leaves any soul absolutely without any excuse for neglecting it. It must have taken the angels and the archangels with the Father, Son and Spirit, in the great councils of heaven, to plan a salvation so complete and comprehensive, a salvation so great that it will meet the needs of all classes and conditions, not only the wicked, but the poor, the unlearned and the educated, the young and the old, not only the good, but also this salvation is great enough to save the heathen.

It is a great salvation also on account of the greatness of its cost. It cost the life of the Son of God Himself. The superintendent of a coal mine, a Christian man, was showing a friend, an unbeliever, through the mine. At last the tour of inspection was completed, and as they were returning they were talking about the Christian life. This skeptical friend remarked, "It seems to me the plan of salvation is unreasonable. It promises us so much for what little we give in return." Just then they reached the foot of the shaft. They stepped into the elevator. The superintendent pushed a button, and quickly they were lifted to the sunlight above. "Is it not marvelous?" exclaimed the visitor, "that we can be so easily and quickly lifted from the darkness down there thousands of feet in the underground into the light up here?" "Yes," said the superintendent, "it is easy for us, but the sinking of this shaft cost a million dollars, and the lives of twelve men." Seeing a chance to emphasize and illustrate a spiritual lesson, he said, "It is just that way with the gospel of Christ." It is easy indeed for you and me to be saved. Had it not been made easy we might have had an excuse for rejecting Christ, but, oh, how infinite the cost! It was at the price of the suffering and the death of the Son of God.

It is the greatness of this salvation that leaves any human soul absolutely without excuse for neglecting it. It is said that one evening at a social gathering in Paris there was present the famous French painter, Meissonier. At one time in the evening there stood near him a girl who had a white satin fan. Kindly he turned to her and with a smile said, "Little girl, if you will loan me your fan, I will take it to my studio and paint on it a picture for you." The little, frivolous miss tossed her head in disdain and as she turned away she said, "Do you suppose I would have my nice fan spoiled with all your nasty paints?" Such a picture a queen or an empress would have bowed in homage to have secured from the brush of the greatest artist of his day. Yet this little maiden turned away from it with scorn. Jesus spoke something about not casting your pearls before swine.

In the last place, this is a great salvation which God offers you on account of the greatness of its results, what it will save you to and what it will save you from. I cannot begin to describe to you the greatness and glory of heaven, what it will mean to be with all the good and great throughout the ages, under the inspiration and instruction of the Son of God Himself. "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for them." Neither is it possible for the human imagination to conceive what it will mean to be lost, cast into the outer darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. If every individual in this audience could get one glimpse of the agony and remorse of eternal doom there would be an end to all spirit of indifference and neglect.

The greatness of these consequences leaves anyone absolutely without excuse. What business man in your city would be excused for neglecting to attend his mother's funeral? Supposing the crape was on the door, the hearse at the gate, and the sorrowing friends had gathered in the home to pay their respects to the memory of that departed life. The minister is about to arise at the head of the coffin to begin the service, when it is noted that the only son is absent. One of his business friends quietly steps out a side door and goes to seek him. He finds him down at his place of business, sitting at his desk, busily engaged upon financial affairs. He says to him, "My friend, have you not forgotten something today?" "What?" replied the man. "Why do you not remember that this is the afternoon of your mother's funeral?" "Oh, yes, I know it," he replied, "but this is one of my busy days. It is near the end of the month, and I have many things to attend to. There are some accounts I must see about collecting, some bills I will have to pay, and also I expect some men in on this next train with whom I am arranging a business deal by which I hope to clear several hundred dollars." The other man stands there amazed. He says, "Was not your mother a good mother?" "Oh, yes; never did a man have a better mother than I had. She was always so patient and unselfish and loving and kind. During my childhood I was not strong and my mother watched over me day and night and I want to tell you that that sickness which resulted in her death, the doctors say, was largely due to her watching over me during my long illness. She would not entrust me to the care of nurses. She wanted to be at my bedside constantly. She literally gave her life for mine." Now the man with his intensity almost at white heat exclaims, "Why, man, are you not going to attend your mother's funeral? Are you not going to honor her memory?" "Oh, I think I will some time, when I feel just like it. I am too busy now; I am not ready yet." Supposing a business man of your city would treat in such a manner the loving memory of his mother. How long would he do business in your midst?

And yet there is One who loves you with a love infinitely stronger than that of any earthly friend. Jesus Christ the Son of God, who suffered all manner of shame and reproach and agony for you. What return are you going to make for his love? Your condemnation is not for having done wrong. It is for rejecting God's great gift. How shall you escape if you neglect longer so great salvation?

In 1880 there were a few more than 1,000 immigrants for the accommodation of travelers in Switzerland, but since then the number has probably trebled.

CATCHER SULLIVAN HELD MANY RECORDS

Chicago, Feb. 15.—William J. Sullivan, veteran catcher of the Chicago American league club, who was given his unconditional release yesterday, held many records during the twenty years he played professional baseball. Statistics compiled here today show that Sullivan caught in 1,200 games during the sixteen years' career as a major leaguer. In one season, while a member of the Dubuque, Iowa, club, he caught 124 consecutive games. He also won distinction a few years ago by catching three balls dropped from the Washington monument.

Thirty members of the Chicago American league club were making preparations today to depart for Paso Robles, Cal., tonight to begin spring training. The players will travel in a special train of six cars. Including the players, wives and friends of Charles A. Conniskey, president of the club, the party will number about sixty-five.

CONTEST EXCITES MUCH INTEREST.

One of the games which is attracting the attention of many basketball fans is the contest to be staged Thursday evening at the St. Paul's hall between the St. Mary's and the St. Paul's teams.

The sale of seats for this game opened Tuesday morning. A good preliminary has been booked for this game when the T. O. P. meet the Nationals in a junior league contest.

Here it comes. Ahead of the robins, ahead of the crows. What, in spite of all last fall's grouches, many of us have eagerly been looking for and waiting to devour—

The first box score. True, it comes from the far off southland, below the frost belt—comes at a time when we're hesitating between earmuffs and an umbrella.

We can't, with physical organs, see the action or hear the cheering. But it's worth something even to read about it at long range and to realize that, very soon, the great occasion will be upon us here in Fort Wayne, too.

Yes, we remember you said, last October, in the mix-up of the baseball war, "Never again!"

Yet, confound your cantankerousness, you know blamed well you didn't mean it.

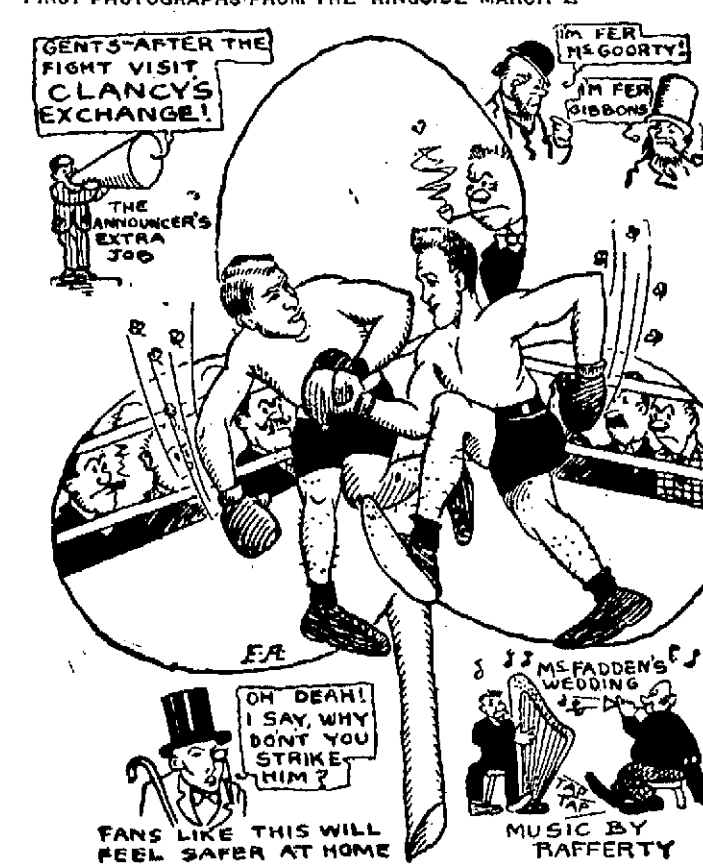

Of course, you'll go to the opener in 1915 and yell as you always yell and beef all the way home if the home team loses.

Though it may be, as you say, that the game has got into the clutches of a lot of mercenaries; though players and managers are both too greedy; though you'd like to see many of 'em tied in a bag and dumped overboard at sea, you know darn well, you old four-flusher, that you can't let spring come without catching the fan fever.

Get you a bag of peanuts you'll be there.

TELLS OF A TRIPLE KILLING ON SINGLE

Wild Bill Donovan Wins Championship at a Fanning Bee.

New York, Feb. 15.—During a fanning bee recently several well known players were discussing exceptional happenings in baseball. Plays of every kind and variety were mentioned until the conversation had veered around to Wild Bill Donovan, who had smilingly accepted the statements. There was a lull in the story telling when Wild Bill put in:

"Did any of you fellows ever see a triple killing on a single? When the All-Nationals went west in 1902 we opened against another all-star aggregation at Hamilton, O. In the first inning of the game we got a man on first and second, nobody out and Wahoo Sam Crawford at bat. Red Doon was catching for them and Miller Huggins was playing second base.

"Sam gave the hit and run signal and the men on base started with the pitch. Sam met the ball squarely for a single into left field. The man on second rounded third for home and the man on first tore around second for third.

"Lefty Houtz was playing left field for the other side and he came in with the crack of the bat, scooped the ball off the ground and shot it to Doon on a line.

"The man who had rounded third saw the ball was going to beat him to the plate so he stopped and started back to third. The other runner also turned round, touched third, and started back to second.

"Crawford was already past first and tearing for second. Doon sized up the play immediately, made a bluff throw to third and whipped the ball to Huggins, who touched Crawford sliding into second and then turned in time to put the ball on the other man coming back to second head first.

"The man who was almost to the plate, and who turned back was standing off third watching the play when Huggins touched Sam and the third runner, then wheeled and threw to third, nailing his man for the third out."

"You win," was the verdict of the fanning players.

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1892 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

THE NEWEST ONE AFTER KID WILLIAMS' CROWN.

"The most promising bantamweight I have ever seen," was the conclusion of Johnny Coulon, former champion of the class, after viewing Johnny Ertle, the St. Paul lad. Ertle has been used frequently even against featherweights in Milwaukee boxing shows and has never failed to blast the reputation of his opponents.

BURY THE HATCHET IN WEISSER PARK

Peace Follows Bitter War
and Factions Are to Unite in Year.

The war is over. Peace has come to spread her comforting pinions over the scene of conflict. The hatchet is buried. There will be no further contest over the proposal to enlarge and complete Weisser park. The threatened suit to have the park board mandated to proceed with the work under its resolution will not be brought. The belligerent factions have come to a realization that the bitter strife that was waged over this issue will, if persisted in, work harm to the Seventh and Tenth wards of which the southeast park district is comprised, and have resolved to work together for the advancement of their section of Fort Wayne. After having had several conferences the advocates of the Weisser park enlargement have notified the board of park commissioners that they will no longer strive for the object of their fight at this time, but will pursue a campaign of education through the next twelve months and when such a proceeding becomes valid will request the board to renew the proceedings, believing that after the lapse of a year those who have opposed the improvement will have become friends of the project. Those who have led the opposition also have informed the park board of their belief that a year hence there will be no objection to the improvement. Following the action of the board in holding the remonstrance sufficient and putting further steps up to the people to seek recourse in the courts, a better feeling has developed among the residents of the Seventh and Tenth wards and there is now a rapidly increasing disposition to work together for their mutual good and the welfare of their district. Thus happily ends what doubtless has been the most obstinate and embittered struggle over the issues of a proposal to effect a public improvement. This city has even seen. It is believed that next year the project to enlarge and complete Weisser park will be carried to success without serious opposition.

EXPERT COMES TO SHOW 'EM.

First Segment Sewer Block is Placed in Fort Wayne.

Under the direction of an expert from the factory at Akron, O., where segment sewer block is made, the first of that material for building sewer arches was placed in Fort Wayne Tuesday afternoon in the big main sewer now being built in the southeast part of the city. S. L. Sheets & Co., contractors for the work, had the expert come to give a demonstration and show the sheets workmen how to build a sewer of segment block, and the operation was begun at Piqua and Darrow avenues, where the trenching was inaugurated. The Sheets company expects to make rapid progress with the work and to have it completed early in July. The big conduit will be over a mile in length and will drain above a square mile of territory.

AT THE TEMPLE.

It is difficult to believe that Harry Stepp is not flattered after seeing him shuffle across the stage as Ignatz Cohen in the crack burlesque at the Temple this week, but that notion is knocked out of one's head after seeing the comedian tango. He could quit making laughs and by selecting any one of a dozen expert dancers from among the "Girls from the Follies" pick out a soft job for himself in vaudeville as a tango dancer.

"The Lady Pirates" is a two act farce with a bundle of laugh compelling situations and a long score of musical numbers. No matter what manner of entertainment one likes he is bound to find it in this production, as there is rag time music, classical music, every variety and breed of dancing and a wealth of pretty girls.

She was a member of the Wayne Street Methodist Episcopal church and an active worker in its affairs. Mr. Long was born and raised in Fort Wayne, but for many years was head of the R. C. Whitney advertising company and traveled from coast to coast. He was well known in the city and his many acquaintances will be grieved to learn of his sudden death.

Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers, Harry M. and Claud H. Long, both of this city.

MARRIED 23 YEARS; ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Sarah Roth Says Husband,
Ernest Roth Always
Has Been Cruel.

After living with her husband for almost twenty-three years, Sarah Roth declares she cannot endure life with Ernest Roth any longer and has begun action in the superior court for divorce. They were wed amid the noise and reek of Colombia's natal day, 1892, and separated the 15th inst. The plaintiff charges that from the beginning of their married life her husband subjected her to cruel and inhuman treatment, calling her vile and indecent names—too vile and indecent to set out in the complaint—and that during the past two years he has failed to properly provide for her, besides repeatedly threatening to do her bodily injury. Fearing, she says, that he will execute these threats she asks the court to issue an order to restrain him from molesting her at her home, 3247 Webster street, or elsewhere. She asks the custody of three children, aged 15, 12 and 8 years, respectively.

Damage Suit on Trial.

The suit of Robert B. Barager vs. the Ohio Electric Railway company for $10,150 damages for bodily injuries to himself and injuries to his motorcycle, is on trial in the circuit court. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant was at fault when he was struck by one of the cars on the Ohio Electric line and badly injured and his motorcycle wrecked at a crossing near New Haven.

Notes of the Courts.

After a trial that lasted all day Monday in the circuit court in the case of Floyd Lambert et al. vs. Joseph Welch, to foreclose a mechanic's lien for $18, Judge Eggleston found for the defendant.

Frank Martin, who has been sued by John Strawbridge for possession of a valuable hunting dog of which both claim ownership, has filed a motion in the circuit court for a change of venue.

Martin was sued in the court of Justice Grabner and took a change of venue to Justice Nierman, where he got a verdict. Then Strawbridge appealed to the circuit court and now Martin has made another move.

The surety of the peace case against Samuel Kovat, a foreman who resides on Hanna street, has been certified to the circuit court by Justice Henry J. Grabner.

The suit of Abe and Ike Weil vs. the Maryland Casualty company has been dismissed from the circuit court.

The circuit court has appointed the Citizens' Trust company administrator of the estate of the late Marion B. Johnson, who at the time of his death was cashier of that financial institution.

The superior court has granted a divorce to Elizabeth Raber from Harvey E. Raber and restored her maiden name of Elizabeth Kludfusz. Raber is now in the penitentiary for forgery.

The suit of Harry Hachtman vs. the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company has been set for trial May 12 in the superior court.

TEACHERS MEET TO DISCUSS CHARGES

As the result of a statement by Dr. Milford H. Lyon at the tabernacle that several pupils who had taken the stand for Christ and were being ridiculed by certain teachers, Acting Principal L. C. Ward, at the suggestion of Superintendent Study, Monday evening called a meeting of the high school faculty.

Not a single teacher was able to shed light on the matter. Superintendent Study stated Tuesday afternoon that he believed the whole thing was the result of a misunderstanding, although he knew nothing concerning the charges as no formal complaint had been made to him.

Beck-Klotz.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's Catholic church this morning at 9 o'clock in the marriage of Miss Edith Klotz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Klotz, of East DeWald street, to Mr. Joseph Beck, of Chicago, a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Beck of that city. Father Charles Thiele officiated at the nuptial mass. Messrs. Anthony and Sylvester Klotz, brothers of the bride, acted as ushers at the church. Miss Norah Klotz, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Henry Bogenschuetz were bridesmaid and groomsmen. The bride made a very good-looking appearance in a suit of Pacific blue gingham with hat to match in coloring and blouse of embroidered chiffon. The bride wore no flowers but carried her prayerbook and that had a handsome marker of ribbon with sweetpeas and evansonia blossoms.

The bridesmaid was gowned in a pink crepe de meteor with touches of real lace in its trimmings and her hat and slippers were pink in coloring. A bouquet of pink Killarney roses was the finishing touch of beauty to Miss Klotz's costume. The wedding party went to the home of the bride's parents right from the church and partook of a wedding breakfast served only to relatives with the exception of Rev. Father Thiele and Rev. Father Burtillat. The breakfast table was artistic in its decoration with pink candles and pink roses. Mrs. Graf acted for the breakfast. This afternoon the bride and groom left for the east and will take a trip of some extent and time. After the first of April Mr. and Mrs. Beck will go to housekeeping in Indiana avenue, Chicago. Mr. Beck is employed in the Chicago postoffice.

IN THE CHURCHES

FORT WAYNE IS ON THE ROUTE OF TOUR PARTY

International Sunday School Workers Will Be in the City March 16.

The itinerary of the International Sunday School association's annual tour of the United States has just been announced, which gives the information that Fort Wayne is on the route of the workers who will be in the city March 16. Marion Lawrence, general secretary of the association, in a communication to the city announces that the plan and nature of this tour will be announced next week.

In view of the fact that these workers are coming, the local Sunday school organization will hold a meeting of its official body Tuesday evening in the tabernacle, following the close of the evangelistic service.

The members of this party will be Marion Lawrence, W. C. Pearce, dean of the International Training school; George W. Bond and Bert Cashmen, and two other men who have not been selected. A tour was made last year by six men visiting four states and ten cities. Eleven days were consumed in the tour, during which time sixty meetings were held and 25,000 people addressed. In most of the cities on the last tour noon luncheons of Christian business men were held and in the afternoon in some places, teachers' conferences. A large mass meeting is then held in the evening.

Congress Will March.

The members of the Young Men's Forward congress will meet Wednesday evening at the First Baptist church at 7 o'clock and will march to the tabernacle on West Main street in a body. A drum corps, composed of members of the congress, will head the procession. Every president has been urged to have his class members in attendance.

Lenten Services Wednesday.

German Lenten services will be held Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the St. John Reformed church. The pastor announces that Rev. A. Seyring, of Cincinnati, will be present and will deliver the sermon.

Church Notes.

The sewing society of the St. John's Lutheran church meets Thursday afternoon at the school hall with Mrs. William Wickart as hostess.

The Good Cheer circle of the King's Daughters will hold its regular meeting Wednesday with Mrs. L. Tomkinson, 2907 Lafayette street.

The Fidelity circle of the King's Daughters meets February 22 with Mrs. I. M. Mathue, 1030 California avenue, instead of Wednesday of this week.

The West End circle of the Ladies' Aid society of the St. John Reformed church meets Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Bosch, 219 West Washington street.

The meeting of the Woman's society of the First Presbyterian church has been postponed from this week until Friday, February 26.

NEW JERSEY FALLS IN LINE.

State Senate Passes Suffrage Amendment, 17 to 4.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 16.—The senate today passed the woman suffrage amendment to the constitution, 17 to 4. The house passed the resolution two weeks ago and both houses having acted on the resolution last year the question will be submitted to the voters for acceptance or rejection in September next.

OPENS WEDNESDAY

Old Fort Packing Co. Will Welcome You to Their New Market.

A new meat market will open its doors to the Fort Wayne public tomorrow morning at the corner of Wayne and Francis streets. The store is one of the handiest in the city and will be known as the "Old Fort Packing Co." Mr. Jos. J. Miller, for sixteen years with Swift and Co., of Chicago, and for the past year manager of that company's local branch, severing his connection with them to embark in business for himself, together with Mr. Earl Henschen, a well known Fort Wayne stock buyer, are the members of the new firm. The new market is handsomely decorated in white tiling and blue enameled walls and every part of the plant is open to the public and inspection solicited at all times. The purchaser can step into the rear rooms and see just how the sausages and other product he is purchasing is made. Among the other sanitary innovations that these gentlemen will introduce in the meat business is that of wrapping every package of meat sold in waxed paper so that there will be no stain or leakage, a feature that will highly commend itself to the housewife. Telephones have been installed and deliveries will be made to all parts of the city promptly. For the convenience of its patrons the company has installed distilled water drinking fountains with individual drinking cups.

MUST BUILD NEW CONNECTION.

Additional Sewer Work Necessary to Lakeside Pumps.

The board of works will doubtless order the construction of a new conduit to connect the Morton and Tecumseh streets sewer mains with the new sewage lift pumps in Lakeside because there is not sufficient gravity flow of sewage to the pumps. The new sewer will be lower down than the connecting sewer that was built last year and it is believed will correct the difficulty now experienced. It will be about 1,100 feet in length and eighteen inches in diameter. Under present conditions the flow does not come to the pumps rapidly enough to keep them going. If the new sewer is ordered the assessment rolls for the work already done will be revised to eliminate certain territory that will specially benefit from the improvement and it will be assessed anew for the proposed drain.

SHOP AND RAIL ROAD NEWS

WAS MAIL ROUTE AGENT 30 YEARS

O. W. Kirkpatrick, on Wabash Trains 2 and 5, Dies Suddenly.

The funeral of O. W. Kirkpatrick, the train mail clerk residing at Maumee, O., for a number of years, was held at Lafayette, Ind., this afternoon and was attended by a number of the mail train clerks and railroad men who were acquainted with the deceased. Mr. Kirkpatrick had a run between St. Louis and Toledo on Wabash trains Nos. 5 and 2 for over a quarter of a century. Last Sunday, when coming east on No. 2, he was taken sick soon after he left St. Louis and was in such a bad condition when the train reached Danville that he had to be taken off and taken to a hospital. He died soon after reaching the institution. Mr. Kirkpatrick is survived by a widow, but no children. Before taking service with the government as a mail clerk on the Wabash road he resided in Lafayette.

READY TO WEIGH THE MAIL.

Work Begins at 12:01 Thursday Morning, February 15.

Weighing of the mails carried by the steam roads will begin at 12:01 o'clock Thursday morning and will continue 105 days. All the work will be accomplished by men under the direction of the government postal department without assistance from the railroads except on the Pennsylvania, the Wabash and the Grand Rapids and Indiana. A. C. Twining, chief clerk in the Pennsylvania trainmaster's office, will represent the Pennsylvania in weighing the mails at Fort Wayne and other places on the Western division. He has selected L. C. Rider, a furloughed brakeman, to weigh the mails in the daytime and Fred H. Tate, a furloughed fireman, to weigh at nights, while H. L. Traxler, a clerk at the east yards office, will assist Mr. Twining in the clerical work, which is a very important part of the business. A. E. Kraus will have charge of weighing the mails carried in and out of the city by the Wabash, assisted by three men furnished by the government. They will operate at the Pennsylvania station, through which the mail to and from the Wabash trains is carried. Weighing of the mails carried by the Nickel Plate, the New York Central and the Lake Erie and Western is to be handled exclusively by men in the employ of the government and will be performed on the trains. The personnel of the weighers could not be learned. Mr. Twining had charge of weighing the mails for the Pennsylvania and the Grand Rapids and Indiana four years ago. Then it was handled on the platform east of the Clinton street side of the old Pennsylvania passenger station.

HEAVY STEEL CARS

Add Much to the Cost of Operating a Railroad.

In writing about steel equipment and its relative cost with old time wooden cars, Paul Alwyn Platz says: "The wooden coach built in 1903 cost $10,850 and weighed 108,000 pounds. The steel coach of the same capacity which came later cost $17,050 and weighed 143,000 pounds, an increase of 57 per cent in cost and 32 per cent in weight."

"Big improvements had to be made in roadway even before steel equipment could be regularly adopted. Prior to 1909, eight to twelve inches was the standard depth of ballast on the Pennsylvania. Since that time it has been necessary to make it eighteen inches. Whereas sixteen ties to a 33-foot rail were customary, now eighteen are used, making a difference of 320 ties to the mile. Also, the average price of ties used for repairs has increased from 76.0 cents to 84.5 cents. While the initial cost of improvement work is for the most part charged to capital, still the repair and renewal bill is increased on account of the more valuable investment, and this must be paid out of operating revenues."

"Railroad repair bills have gone up with appliances and devices of safety. In numerous ways down to the use of the cone-spike instead of the ordinary one, heavier tie plates and the like, the cost of maintaining a railroad has become increasingly expensive on account of the faster and heavier trains used in modern passenger service. There is, too, the more general use of Pullman service, in which a car weighing much more than the regular car, carries half as many people. The dead weight per passenger is more than double.

"How to maintain and develop the passenger service in accordance with present standards, on a declining ratio of income the railroad men are becoming a more serious problem each year."

"In the past it has been a case of letting the freight end of the business carry the load of expensive passenger service. The question is how much longer can this be done?"

STILL ONE VACANT CHAIR.

A fire which came mighty near destroying his home in Maumee, Pa., prevented W. T. Weschler, division storekeeper at that point for the Pennsylvania, from attending the monthly meeting of the storekeepers in this city this week. The fire originated in the bath room of Mr. Weschler's house and had a good start when discovered. Instead of coming to the meeting he sent his assistant, R. R. Daniels. The serious illness of Mrs. Grubb, wife of Storekeeper F. C. Grubb, at Toledo, prevented the attendance of Mr. Grubb at the meeting a month ago. The patient has improved, however, to the point where she was able to leave the hospital and go to her home and her complete recovery is assured. Mr. Grubb is attending the storekeepers' meetings this week. Others taking part in the meetings are C. P. Cherry, Fort Wayne, who is presiding; Paul Zimmerman, Chicago; Charles Jackson, Allegheny; E. Shipley, Wellsville; F. S. Schultz, Crestline; C. E. Blossing, Cleveland; Peter Zurbach, east car shop office; W. C. J. Annan and Henry Heine, steamfitters and clerks, Fort Wayne.

FOUND BOX OF CLOTHING.

Captain Stoll, of the Pennsylvania police department, and his lieutenants and patrolmen are interested in the investigation of a theft of two boxes of clothing of the Hart, Schaffner & Marx make. Yesterday two lots of clothing were found near the Pennsylvania tracks. One was in a box pulled out of the Calumet river and the other was a pile of coats, pants and vests which had been in a box and an attempt made to destroy them by fire. The box was burned and the garments were not entirely consumed. It is not known from which railroad the freight came, but it was either the Pennsylvania or the New York Central for they are near each other at that point. The box taken from the river was marked to parties in Connecticut.

MANY TRESPASSERS KILLED

By statistics compiled by the Pennsylvania it is shown that during the eight years ending with 1914 there were 2,993 trespassers killed on the company's lines east of Pittsburgh. These unfortunate included people from all walks of life—students, lawyers, painters, salesmen, miners, soldiers, stationary engineers and shopmen. These deaths were charged to railroad accidents, yet the railroad was powerless to prevent them. Through the efforts of the railroad there has been a steady decrease in the number of accidents each of the succeeding years in the period covered by the statistics. In 1907 there were 572 killed, while in 1914 there were only 301 killed.

PELL IN HONEST HANDS.

While Mechanist William Long and Boilermaker William Dennis were en route to the Pennsylvania shops, where they are employed, this morning they discovered a pocketbook lying on the sidewalk on Baker street. Suspecting it had been dropped by some one going to the Pennsylvania station, they started for that place and met the owner, who had missed the purse and started out to look for it. It contained a considerable sum of money, in addition to some valuable papers and a railroad ticket. The lady was profuse in her thanks for the return of the purse. She was going to Columbia City to visit friends.

NEW WABASH OFFICIAL.

Yesterday J. L. Harris became general live stock agent of the Wabash, with headquarters in the Live Stock exchange in Kansas City. He will have charge of live stock and live poultry traffic and other duties will be assigned to him in connection with the handling of packing house products and other perishable freight. Mr. Harris comes from the Chicago & Alton. He was formerly connected with the Wabash and the Missouri Pacific and is well known throughout the west and southwest.

RECEIVED ORDER FOR FORGINGS.

Foreman Joseph Slater, of the Bass blacksmith shop, booked an order for nine large shafts yesterday. There will be considerable work for the hammersmiths on this order, as the shafts range in length from thirteen to twenty-three feet. Business has not been very heavy at the blacksmith department of the Bass works and the order for shafts yesterday was welcomed and taken as a harbinger of improved times.

BRAKEMEN REPORT FOR WORK.

J. H. Fitzgerald, the Nickel Plate brakeman, who was injured by falling from a caboose at Claypool February 1, and Brakeman O. J. Marks, who had been sick several days, resumed work on the road this morning, having recovered.

TO CHICAGO FOR A BRIDE.

Transportation was issued today to H. Perlman and wife from Chicago to Fort Wayne. Mr. Perlman is employed in the Pennsylvania machine shop and he will be married next Saturday at Chicago to a young lady from his home town in Russia and the couple will immediately come here to reside.

TRIAL POSTPONED.

The Greek candy maker and dealer at Lima, O., who is charged with receiving stolen goods taken from a Pennsylvania car, has been postponed until Wednesday. This man purchased candy and cigars that were said to be taken from

CITY SCALE MASTER HAS VERY BUSY DAY

City Scalemaster B. W. Skirten experienced a very busy day Tuesday, weighing sixty-seven loads of grain and hay, among which were twenty-eight loads of corn, the largest number of loads of corn that the city scalemaster has ever weighed in one day.

On account of the heavy receipts in the corn market the prices received ranged all the way from 70c to 85c a bushel, those people receiving the highest price who appeared on the markets first.

Three loads of oats made their appearance on the street Tuesday morning but no sooner had they come than they were gone as merchants quickly bought all they could and paid the high price of 69c a bushel for the grain. It is predicted that the oats market will go up for some time as the demand is becoming greater than the supply, which will naturally boost the price.

Contrary to the prediction of millers Monday afternoon that the price on wheat per bushel would go lower, the price took a jump of 3c upward, millers offering 1.45. The market remains very unsettled in the big centers and no prediction can be made as to how the prices will be Wednesday. No reduction has been made in flour prices.

IT'S A LONG, LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY

For Smashing Windows Pat O'Brien Will Spend 170 Days in Jail.

For several years the police, city court and prosecutor as well as the authorities at the county infirmary have been sorely puzzled what to do with Patrick O'Brien, a pauper, who, at the age of 73, is about the most incorrigible scoundrel in this flourishing community of 80,000 souls. Pat has been admitted time and again to the poor house, but will not stay there. Every few weeks he jumps the reservation and comes down town to get drunk. Then he pursues the regular course of arrest, trial and either return to the infirmary or a term in jail. Some time ago the poor house refused to have him, and what to do with him became a problem. Mr. O'Brien solved the question for himself last Saturday when after being ejected from Jack Brown's saloon, 106 East Columbia street, he clubbed his heavy walking stick and beat out the plate glass front of the saloon, causing damage to the amount of $60. He pleaded guilty Tuesday morning to a charge of malicious trespass and was fined $60 and costs, to which was added a jail sentence of 100 days. This will hold Patrick for 170 days and when he gets out the good old summer time will be about faded and gone.

Puts Stopper in Huffman Case.

After the trial of Ike Huffman, a Haydon street junker charged with receiving stolen goods, had proceeded to the point where George Weber, an 18-year-old lad now under bond to the circuit court for larceny, was ready to "come clean" on the witness stand, Otto E. Fuehrer, Weber's attorney, put a stopper to the proceedings by making objection to the testimony of his client, and was sustained. Weber had confessed to half a dozen detectives for the city, the Pennsylvania railroad and the Fort Wayne Traction company, the details of several robberies and of the sale of stolen brass to Huffman, but the state was unable to get this testimony before the court. Prosecutor Dulin then secured a continuance until February 26. Attorney Louis Plost, Huffman's counsel, objected strenuously to the continuance. Weber's companions in the stealing and sale of the brass were Frank Wojciechowski and Joseph Wencik, each aged 15, and they were taken on Monday to the boys' school at Plainfield. They will be brought back to testify to what Weber's own case bars him from telling to save his own prejudice and incrimination.

Other City Court Cases.

The cases of Abe Frank, a Bloomingdale merchant, and Henry Bushier, his cashier, on charges of petit larceny were continued to February 23 on request of Sally K. Frankenstein, their counsel. Complaint was made by Arthur Reed, 105 Romy avenue, that the accused had stolen nine chickens from him. The case involves a bill for straw delivered to Reed and alleged to be unpaid for. Reed sold some chickens to the Frank store and payment was refused until he settled the account claimed to be due. He replevined the poultry and later swore out warrants for larceny.

LAD RUNS INTO AUTO

C. Aurentz, who was passing at the time. Officer Ernest Paul and Mr. Aurentz took the lad to Dr. M. F. Porter's office, where he was found to be uninjured save for a cut on the hand, which was dressed.

GERMANS DID NOT URGE
TURKEY INTO THE WAR

Ottoman Actuated Only by Influences of Empire, Says Talaat Bey.

Constantinople, Feb. 17.—"Turkey declared war without being urged by Germany or impelled by any other influences save those of the empire," said Talaat Bey today in a statement to the Associated Press made in reply to questions concerning the political and military situation in his country.

Talaat Bey today fills the post of minister of the interior, minister of finance and minister of marine in the Turkish cabinet. Two weeks ago, in addition to these offices, he was also minister of war, which gave him the four most important portfolios in the administration. He is a young Turk and undoubtedly the most important man in Turkey at the present time. His advice is heeded everywhere and he virtually directs the public affairs of the Ottoman empire.

"Turkey engaged in military operations," he continued, "only when actions on the part of Russia and Great Britain made defensive measures necessary and today Turkey has taken all steps necessary to carry the war through. The war is not menacing Christians but the holy war is a fact which the enemies of the Mohammedan world should bear in mind. Christians in the Ottoman empire who are participating in the destinies of their country are not suffering from conditions brought about by the present state of affairs and any statements to the contrary are a result of British, French and Russian intrigues, the purpose of which is to direct against Turkey the pressure of neutral countries of lower standing in the Ottoman world."

To the correspondent of the Associated Press, Talaat Bey complained of the attitude of foreign newspapers, including the American Press, which he said were oblivious alike of the position of Turkey under the pressure of the entente powers, and the efforts of the young Turks to accomplish the reforms associated with that party. "On land and sea alike the Russians and the British provoked hostilities," he declared.

CERTAIN TO MEET NEW STRUGGLE IN SENATE

Washington, Feb. 17.—The administration compromise ship purchase bill went to the senate today following its passage by the house early today by a vote of 215 to 121.

The measure was injected as a new element into the tangled situation in the senate where the original ship purchase bill has been held up by a determined filibuster for weeks.

The same stubborn opposition that has long kept the senate exclusively occupied promised to greet the new bill which emerged from a fourteen-hour parliamentary struggle in the lower branch of congress.

Formal inquiry into charges of "jobbing" against the administration ship purchase bill pending in the senate was begun today by the special senate committee. Two witnesses who were on hand read to testify when the senate hearing began were Bernard N. Baker, of Baltimore, former manager of the Atlantic Transport Line, and Sigmond Albert, of New York, representing German-American steamship companies. A number of other witnesses will be summoned by the committee.

ROUT OF FOES IN EAST
COMPLETE, SAYS BERLIN

Berlin, Feb. 17.—Fifty thousand prisoners, besides many cannon and machine guns, were captured by the Germans when the Russian Tenth army was defeated in the Mazurian lake district, East Prussia, according to a statement issued at headquarters here today. The text of the communication follows:

"In a nine days' battle in the Mazurian lake district the Russian Tenth army, consisting of at least eleven infantry and several cavalry divisions, not only was driven out of strongly entrenched positions east of the Mazurian lake plateau but was forced back across the frontier."

"Utterly defeated at almost every point only the remnants of the army managed to reach the woods east of Suwalki and Augustowo, where they are being pursued. The number of prisoners taken has not been ascertained but certainly exceeded 50,000. More than fifty cannon and sixty machine guns besides an unknown quantity of war materials were captured."

"Emperor William was present during the decisive fighting in the center of our line. The victory was won by veteran East Prussian troops assisted by other troops who were young for such work but proved their worth."

"The achievements of these troops under fearful weather conditions marching by day and night and fighting against such a stubborn enemy are beyond all praise."

United States government would pension the men who have served in the service for years.

Dr. Lyon then announced that the Masons would attend the meeting Thursday night in a body and complimented their action in the early abolition of the burlesque shows in the Temple theater. He did not mention the burlesque shows but everybody knew what he meant.

The Christian Soldier.

Dr. Lyon spoke Tuesday evening on "The Christian Soldier," pointing out the battle that is being fought against organized corruption, the brewery and whiskey monopoly, the white slave traffic and other forms of vice. The evangelist declared that when he compared the sturdy old men of today with the spider legged, empty headed, cigarette smoking grandsons, he often wonders what this world is coming to.

"In these days we have too much to enjoy and too little to endure," he said. "If the younger generation had some of the hardships of their forefathers to endure the young men of today would be stronger."

"I can give you nothing better than this," he continued. "The greatest need of our civilization is the moral equivalent of war."

Souvenir Number.

The souvenir number of "The Silent Evangel" which is devoted to the Lyon campaign in Fort Wayne and to the work of the members of the Lyon party was placed on sale Tuesday night. The supply is almost exhausted, the demand being greater than was anticipated.

At the close of the service a meeting of the Sunday school officers and teachers was held on the platform. One of the features of the song service was a selection by the quartet of the American Insurance Union, composed of C. F. Lawrence, Grace Blake, Mrs. Frank Kellogg and T. W. Reinwald. To the music of "The Old Oaken Bucket," the quartet sang the following:

"Our order upholds Dr. Lyon's good teachings
On booze and deception which cause naught but pain
For he and his party did come to our city
To help win the battle that had seemed in vain.
We've all hit the one trail with us 'the policeman'
Joined hands in uniting for Christ as our king
So we welcome the day when all will be singing
In glory forever our anthems will ring
The old tabernacle it stands as a symbol
Of pureness and sweetness where Jesus has reigned."

P. O. Employees' Yell.

Following is the yell of the post-office employees and mail clerks:

"He, Ho, Hi, Hey; He, Ho, Hi, Hey;
He, Ho, Hi, Hey; He, Ho, Hi, Hey;
Old U. S. A. Hu Rey.

Is there an mail today?
Come by the Airship Way?
May our God truly reign
In Fort Wayne with Might and Main."
The orchestra which has been assisting Mr. Jones during the last few weeks of the campaign is composed of Mrs. R. N. Steury, alto; Marie Steury, cornet; M. Richard Steury, clarinet; all of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ, and Mabel Fiegle, violin. W. D. Kyle, bass, and M. R. Smith, second cornet, of the Plymouth Congregational church.

One Hundred and Thirteen Decisions.

At the afternoon service conducted by Mrs. Barr there were twenty-five decisions and at the evening service there were eighty-eight, making a total for the day of 113 and for the entire campaign up to the present time of 4,092. The attendance was estimated at 5,900.

With the delegation of civil war veterans Tuesday evening was William Curran, 1250 West Washington street, who is 83 years old and a veteran of both the civil and Mexican wars. He fought at the battle of Belmont, Mo., with U. S. Grant and participated in many other battles. He was given a seat on the platform. Mr. Curran is a member of the U. S. Grant post of Chicago.

Noon-Day Luncheon.

A luncheon was given at noon Wednesday at the First Presbyterian church for the men's personal workers' league and guests, which was well attended. Shop meetings were held at the Pennsylvania round house and the Fort Wayne Electric works. Dr. Lyon spoke at the afternoon service Wednesday at the tabernacle.

All branches of the Women's Christian Temperance unions of Fort Wayne will unite in giving a reception for Mrs. Daisy Barr, Mrs. M. H. Lyon and Mrs. Loren G. Jones at the Y. W. C. A. Thursday afternoon, at the close of the regular afternoon service.

The Young Men's Forward Congress will meet at the First Baptist church at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening and march to the tabernacle in a body.

The newsboys will meet at Berry and Harrison streets at 7 o'clock Friday evening and march to the tabernacle in a body headed by the boy scouts' drum corps. All newsboys, carriers and friends are invited to participate in the parade.

HIS REMEDY CAUSES DEATH

California Man Starves Himself to Cure Stomach Trouble.

Palo Alto, Cal., Feb. 17.—Louis C. Roth, a tailor, died here last night from starvation, self inflicted, in an effort to discontinue stomach trouble.

Roth began a contest with his malady in the middle of last December and for 50 days abstained from food. Last Sunday he announced that his appetite had returned and that he felt himself the victor of his complaint. Since that time he took small quantities of orange juice, but the weakened digestive organs were unable to retain the nourishment.

Kern in Telegram Urges Law for Direct Primary

Indianapolis, Feb. 17.—United States Senator John W. Kern today became a factor in the direct primary fight pending in the state legislature when he urged in a telegram that the primary bill be sent to law. Mr. Kern said President Wilson and Secretary Bryan endorsed the measure and that two democratic state conventions had pledged that it shall become a law. The telegram, addressed to Senator Ballou, follows:

"Impossible for me to leave here. Hope democratic legislature will enact primary law. Indiana's splendid democratic governor recommends it; the greatest democratic president since Jackson urges it. Bryan, the best loved American democrat, advises it. Two democratic state conventions have pledged the honor of the party that it shall be passed. Is it possible that the will of a quarter of a million democrats shall be thwarted by a few men? That is the supreme issue, holders."

The passage of the Fleming bill abolishing the office of state statistician by the senate yesterday was considered by party leaders today, an assurance that the numerous other bills now pending intended to do away with some of the mining state offices would also be successful. They are all included in the economy program that was adopted by the majority at the beginning of the session. The bill, if enacted into law, will not go in effect until after the term of the present statistician, Thomas Broyles, expires. The annual cost of the maintenance of this office is about $22,000. The state board of forestry, state inspector of aparies, state library board, state entomologist, state veterinarian, state oil and gas inspector are among the other minor appointive offices that are expected to give way before the wave of economy that party leaders say will sweep the state of all unnecessary offices.
